George Bertram and Alfred Sweeney have just returned from Garibaldi, where they had gone after Mrs. Fred Bertram and daughter Clara, Mrs. Phelps and Mrs. George Bertram and two boys.
The party had been gone for a month's outing. They had a most enjoyable time.

Wm. Campbell of McMinnville placed a fine colt in his pasture with a fine colt and its mother.
After several days he observed that the colt was growing puny, and supposed that it was sick. He was about to give it a dose of cold physic; but on investigation he found that the mother of the colt was giving suck to calf and colt, which made short rations for the colt.

A CURE FOR CHOLERA INFANTUM.
—Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Brookwater, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail one single instance." For sale by R. L. Harris.

A great amount of wood is being brought in town, to be used by the Dayton Evaporating Company.

That company appear to be preparing to make a big run in evaporating fruits and vegetables this season.

We are informed by those employed on the steamer Modoc that the water at the mouth of the Yamhill is getting quite "thin," and it is getting difficult for the boat to come into the Yamhill from the Willamette on account of the gravel bar at the mouth.

MARRIED.—Sunday, July 27th, couple expect to live in Dayton.

They have the best wishes of many friends for a happy and prosperous life.

A battery of Uncle Sam's men from Vancouver barracks, encamped in Dayton park Thursday night last. They had been at the militia camp at Albany, and were on their way back to Vancouver. Many came in from the country and there were a great crowd of people gathered to see the soldier boys. They looked as though they had been out in service.

Word was received at McMinnville Thursday that J. C. Braley, had died at his home in Los Angeles, Cal., that morning. Mr. Braley was a former resident of McMinnville.
He was 73 years of age, and during his residence in Yamhill county was one of its most influential and prominent citizens. He was the founder of the McMinnville National Bank, and at one time was a member of the Oregon Legislature.

There will be a literary and musical entertainment given at the One evening last week when two ladies were crossing the bridge that spans the Yamhill river, a tumultuous cry arose from a party of im-modest bathers just above the bridge. The language indulged in was of the vilest, and unfit to be uttered in the presence of any human, much less that of youth, of which the party was in a great part composed, and still less in presence of ladies. In using such language and committing such acts in public, the one who does so greatly lowers the standard of morality; and he not only does that, but he breaks the law. For the safety and well being of society, and the good name of the town, it is to be hoped that some restraining influence, parental or otherwise, will be exerted so that such exhibits of depravity will not be repeated. It is equitable and just that boys be allowed any and all freedom necessary to the development of their physical organization, but when such freedom becomes a nuisance it should be abated.

It is anticipated that there will be a very large yield of hops this season, in the Willamette valley, which will require a larger force of pickers than usual. There is a probability that the price paid pickers will be advanced. The outlook, at this time, for hopgrowers is very flattering. As the yield will probably be very large, and contracts are being made at 20 cents per pound and the prospect is that the price will go still higher. Hop-men are jubilant over their prospects; and well they may be.

The Crabtree family had a pleasant reunion last Sunday at the spacious farm residence of F. M.
Crabtree, sr., in the Pleasantdale neighborhood. All members of the family and grandchildren were there, and greatly enjoyed the occasion. Reynolds, the Dayton artist, took an excellent picture of the group. The reunion was had because of the departure of Mrs.
Nellie Barrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Crabtree, sr., and her friend Miss Fisher to return to their homes at Hillsboro, Ill.

SUNNY SOUTH
Fifty Cents a Year—Less Than a Penny a Week.
THE SOUTH'S LITERARY WEEKLY
Published at Atlanta, Ga.—Circulation Over 50,000.

The SUNNY SOUTH is the Great Literary Weekly of the South. It is devoted to Literature, Romance, Fact and Fiction, and gives the best of all that is current in its field. Among its contributors the most noted southern writers appear—Joel Chandler Harris, Harry Stilwell, and others of growing fame. Serial stories from Anthony Hope, Maurice Thompson, Sidney H. Crockett, Mrs. George Corbett and Arthur W. Marchmont have appeared, and others are in waiting from the pen of authors of national note. A short story contest brought out nearly five hundred splendid short stories, all worthy a place in the SUNNY SOUTH's readable columns. Other contests are contemplated that will successfully exploit the ripening field of talent that only needs such fostering to illustrate the wealth that is lying in wait for use.

The SUNNY SOUTH teems with the life of the great south. The genial sunshine warms everything into activity and the season's never cold enough to check the hand of industry. The paper comes fragrant with the breath of the magnolia and pine, and gives out the very air of the orange, palm and bay. The beauty and pathos, the romance and mystery of the land where the corn waves up the golden sunshine at the cotton whitens in the moonlight, will be given in the well-filled columns of this fascinating weekly.

The subscription price is Only Fifty Cents a Year, affix to all persons, agents, news-vendors, postmasters and every one else. Clubs of five, accompanied by the 15:30, entitle the club ruler to the paper one year gratis.

Send on a Postal Card the names of six of your neighbors who would appreciate the opportunity to read a copy of The Sunny South, and no one will be left free. You can get your club or five out of these very people.

The SUNNY SOUTH enters over 50,000 American homes now; and during 1902 is sure to be welcomed as fully as many more homes, as the great weekly best of good things. The Southern Literary Weekly, whose claims for 1902 will be the most readable of all the papers in it come to you.
