

Hon. J. H. Mitchell, one of Oregon's U. S. Senators, is now in Portland. He is one of the senatorial committee who are to investigate affairs in Hawaii, and will sail for the islands from San Francisco August 26.

The St. Louis world's fair management offers a prize of two thousand dollars for the chosen design for an emblem expressive of the importance of the event. Designs may be submitted in relief or in color.

The escaped convict from the Oregon penitentiary, and daring outlaw, Harry Tracy, has met the almost certain doom of all such law breakers and desperadoes. Last Wednesday morning his body was found in a wheat field on Lake creek near Davenport, Wash., with the top of his head blown off, and a six shooter lying beside it. The day before a farmer named L. B. Eddy sent word to officials by a boy named Goldfinch that Tracy was at his (Eddy's) farm. It was late when the officers arrived at the farm. Tracy who was attending to one of his horses in the barnyard, at the appearance of the posse managed to dodge behind Eddy and the horse, and reach the barn, when he secured his gun and emerged from the barn with it in his hand. A running fight then took place, and a number of shots exchanged between the posse and outlaw, in which the latter received a mortal wound in the leg. He made his way into a wheat field, and the hour being late the posse did not enter the field, but surrounded it to prevent his escape. During the night a shot was heard, which it is supposed was the death knell of the outlaw.

"The boys in this office," says the editor of the Concordia (Kan.) Kansan "chipped in and bought us an elegant bath robe for a Christmas present. It was the finest to be had in the town. We are proud of it. We want to show off in it—we are going to rig up in it—one of these fine days, we'll telephone down to the city marshal to warn the people to look out for their horses, then come tripping gaily down the street in a woolen raincoat. If you hear a loud, rumbling roar one of these days don't get scared. Look out for an apparition coming down sixth street resembling the Sultan of Johore going to war—don't shoot. Before we take our annual bath in the Republican River, next month, we may learn what a bath robe is good for. If we do, we'll put the robe in action then."

ABOUT NEWSPAPERS—Many persons have vague and peculiar notions concerning newspaper's source of revenue. Some innocent souls go even so far as to imagine that newspapermen are printed solely through philanthropic motives and that their columns belong to the public who have an unquestioned right to fill them with communications setting forth their own peculiar views. Still others have an idea that advertisements are merely to fill up space. Only a few days ago a woman who is a deeply interested in church work said, "We are soon going to have a celebration at our church then the papers will have something to fill up with, and they have to print so many of those horrid advertisements."

For the information of those not familiar with newspaper work it may be interesting for them to know that newspapers are printed for the same reason that shoes and furniture and hats, etc., are made to sell and provide an income for those who invest their money. The columns of the newspaper are its wares, and the use of them is sold to persons in other lines of business who desire to advertise their special wares. The quality of the reading matter provided by a newspaper regulates its sale and therefore regulates the value of its advertising columns. The revenue received for advertisement is what sustains a newspaper just as profits that the shoe manufacturer makes on his goods enables him to live and continue in business. Probably no men in business are more liberal than the publishers of newspapers. Column after column of gratuitous advertising is done for church fairs, concerts, public amusements, charitable entertainments, etc.

ALL WERE SAVED—"For years I suffered such untold misery from bronchitis," writes J. H. Johnston, of Broughton, Ga., "that often I was unable to work. Then, when everything else failed, I was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. My wife suffered intensely from asthma, till it cured her, and all our experience goes to show it is best croup medicine in the world." A trial will convince you it's unrivaled for throat and lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at C. W. Powell's.

MOTHERHOOD

The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriage; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years.

Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

WINE OF CARDUI

148 Market Street, Memphis, Tenn., April 14, 1901.

In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Theobald's Black-Drugs. I had been given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 21, 1901.

The baby weighs fourteen pounds and I feel as well as any person could feel, without Wine of Cardui in my home.

A YOUNG LADY'S LIFE SAVED.

AT PANAMA, COLOMBIA, BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.—Dr. Chan. H. Utter, a prominent physician of Panama, Colombia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well." For sale by Harris.

"NOW IS THE APPOINTED TIME."—The O. R. & N. Co. has just issued a handsomely illustrated pamphlet entitled, "Oregon, Washington & Idaho and their Resources." People in the East are anxious for information about the Pacific Northwest. If you will give the O. R. & N. Co. agent a list of names of Eastern people who are likely to be interested, the booklet will be mailed free to such persons.

A. L. CRAIG, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Or.
