LABOR DAY 1902.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

Whereas the Legislature of Oregon has set apart the first Monday in September of each year as a legal holiday to be known as Labor Day; Therefore, I, T. T. Geer, Governor of said State, do hereby recommend that all places of business of whatsoever kind, as far as possible, be closed Monday, September 1, 1902, and that the day be devoted to an observance of such exercises as may contribute to a better understanding between Labor and Capital, the great moving forces behind modern industrial development, and it is especially urged that employers co-operate with their employees in a mutual observance of the day in such manner as will fittingly recognize the reliance which each must place upon the other before the best results from both may be expected or attained.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed hereto.

Done at the capitol, in the city of Salem, this thirteenth day of August, A. D. 1902.

T. T. GEER,
By the Governor: Governor.

F. I. DUNHAM,
Secretary of State.

LITTLE ACTS—"For who hath despised the day of small things?" Zechariah 4:10. We forget to notice the little acts of life, but they are the most important after all. An old lady had been an invalid for some time. She was sitting at her window one morning—a young lady who passing on her way to work, looked up and smiling pleasantly said "good morning." A few weeks afterward the old lady died, but she had remembered the young lady in her will. Discoveries are made mostly by little things. The art of printing owes its origin to rude impressions (for the amusement of children) from letters carved on the bark of a beech tree. There are some persons who would never have noticed it.

"A little cloud the sun will hide.
A dwarf may prove a giant guide.
A narrow plank a safe bridge form.
A smile some cheerless spirit warm."
The widow's mitea great gift proved.
A widow's prayer has been moved.
Then let us not, the poor miss,
Despise the gospel of small things."

LITERATURE AS A TRADE—To write successfully means to serve a long and hard apprenticeship; it means to do many things badly in order to learn to do a few things well; to read many authors, and good ones; to live with words till one knows their value, and it means too, that one must know something about the reality of life. In short, writing is a trade, just like book-binding or type-setting. It is different, of course; it has a higher side, we believe, but to think only of the higher side, and ignore the trade part of it, is to prepare one's self for a great disappointment. Decidedly the novice should not expect to earn pin-money by setting down her day-dreams, when successful authors are obliged to slog day-time and night-time in order to learn the mechanics of the art.—September Woman's Home Companion, Springfield, Ohio.

Mr. A. G. Byers of Independence was in town the other day and reports his cure of total deafness by Dr. Darrin as permanent. He was so much pleased with the result that he brought his father for treatment for other troubles. W. give below his sworn statement, given last June:

NOW YOUNG MR. BYERS RECEIVED HEARING.

Mr. A. J. Byers, of Independence, accompanied by his son, A. G. Byers, called at the Journal office this afternoon and made a statement relative to the condition of the younger man. He had been deaf from his infancy, and the difficulty gradually increased to such extent that he was almost totally deaf. Two months ago the young man came to Dr. Darrin, at hotel Willamette for treatment, and to-day called at the Journal office to state that he can hear as well as anybody. The reporter talked to him in a low tone of voice and his hearing was as good as the best. This remarkable cure of necessity makes the young man feel happy, and his father is more than pleased. Their purpose in coming to the Journal office was to make a statement to the public concerning the wonderful cure.

ANOTHER EQUALLY REMARKABLE CURE.

C. R. Durfee, a farmer residing near Shaw station is one of the happiest men in this county. For over 23 years he was deaf in the left ear, his hearing being entirely destroyed, while his right ear was entirely normal. After treating with Dr. Darrin, at the Hotel Willamette, Mr. Durfee can hear perfectly in the left ear, and is loud in his praises of the physician who so successfully treated him. Mr. Durfee says the restoration of his hearing is a great relief to him, for he can hear every sound, and locate it. Miss Nellie, the daughter of Mr. Durfee, was also cured by Dr. Darrin of deafness and granulated eyes about two months ago. Mr. Durfee called at the Journal office and volunteered the above statement.

A YOUNG LADY'S LIFE SAVED.

AT PANAMA, COLOMBIA, BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY—Dr. Chas. H. Utter, a prominent physician of Panama, Colombia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort, prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well." For sale by Harris.

Henry L. Shattuck of Shellsburg, Iowa, was struck by a stomach trouble with which he had been afflicted for years, by a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He had previously tried many other remedies and a number of physicians without relief. For sale by Harris.

WINE OF CARDUI

123 Market Street, Memphis, Tenn., April 16, 1901. In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Thedford's Black-Drum. I had been given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 21, 1901. The baby weighs fourteen pounds and I feel so well in any person could feel. Now my home is happy and I never will be without Wine of Cardui in my home again. Mrs. J. W. C. MEYER.

Advertising is to the merchant what plowing and sowing is to the farmer. Imagine a farmer trying to raise a crop by sitting on the fence as he looks over a ten-acre field wishing that a nice crop of wheat or corn would spring up in it. Ridiculous, isn't it? But not any more so than the merchant who hides a stock of goods away in a storeroom and then sits on the counter, hoping that people will come in and buy.—Ex.
