TO THE PUBLIC.—Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health RALPH S. MYERS, 64-Thirty-seventh St., Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by R. L. Harris.

FIVE GOOD REASONS.
That the Rio Grande Route is the most popular one between the Pacific Coast and the East, is evidenced by the fact that the greater per cent of transcontinental travelers use it.

FIRST, the scenic attractions in view from trains are unequalled in the world.

SECOND, the daily personally conducted tourist car excursions being especially adapted for ladies traveling alone or with children, affords a comfortable mode of travel at rates within the reach of all.

THIRD, it is the only route between the East and West passing directly through Salt Lake City and modern Zion.

A heavy frost Thursday morning. The shortest days of the year will be one month from this date.

The holidays will soon be here. You will find some useful goods at Nichols & Gabriel's suitable for holiday presents for young and old.

There has been a change in the arrival and departure of trains. Commencing today, the morning train arrives at 8:35; evening train arrives from Portland at 5:50.

Mr. Odwell, late of McMinnville, who has been in Washington, D. C., visiting his brother and wife, is here visiting his sister, Mrs. Nancy Crawford of Dayton, Friday.

The lot corner of Third and Perry streets, owned by the Odd Fellows has been fenced in for the present. A new sidewalk will be laid along the lot on Third street.

The street lamps are becoming greatly needed, why not light them up during the dark nights? We are informed that they will be lighted until next month.

Miss Rose Ferguson, who accompanied Miss T. E. Edger on her weekly visit home on Saturday, from her school, was the guest of Miss Edger over Sunday at Dayton hotel.

On Tuesday the water in the Willamette river lashed but two feet of being over the locks at Oregon City. Had the water continued to rise and locks been overflowed navigation would have been at a stand again. But fortunately this did not result.

W. E. Gabriel last Friday hastily entered sanctum of HERALD and placed on editor's table a package, departing remarked, "here are your ribs." He has thanks of the editor. They were excellent and at any time you have SPARE-ribs, Mr. G. give this office a call.

A LIBERAL OFFER.—The undersigned will give a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to any one wanting a reliable remedy for disorders of the stomach, biliousness or constipation. This is a new remedy and a good one. R. L. Harris.

Sheriff Ford of Dallas, Polk county, was in Dayton Wednesday looking for two young men who escaped from the jail at that place Sunday night, by sawing off bars of jail window. The men were seen in this vicinity, and it is believed were in town.

At a late meeting of the city council, several new crosswalks were ordered to be put down. It would be economy and make better walks—freer of mud and dirt, to raise the crosswalks somewhat above the ground when constructing them.

Apparently, there was but little interest manifested in the Dayton city election on Monday. But few votes were cast. Following is the ticket elected—there being but one ticket out: S. R. Baxter, Mayor; A. C. Darr, Bird Parish, Charles Addison, Councilmen; S. W. Sigler, Recorder; George Roberts, Marshal; Leonard Roemer, Treasurer; License, No. This was the citizens ticket.

Take supper with the ladies of the Aid Society at the Evangelical church on Saturday evening. Supper from 5 to 7 o'clock; chicken pie, roast and fried chicken and other good eatables; and good treatment; all for 25 cents. After supper entertainment, 10 and 15 cents. Be on hand and enjoy a good social time.

Chas. Hall who dug a well this week for Alva Macy—which he says is the last one he will dig this season—informs us that in digging he struck hardpan at the depth of two feet, and that notwithstanding the heavy rains, the ground was dry, with but little seepage below the hardpan. He dug to the depth of 35 feet, and believes that Mr. Macy will have an abundance of water in the well at any season, as he dug to a depth below surface water.

DIED.—In Salem, Or., November 18th, Mary J. Crater, aged 61 years. Mrs. C. was born in North Carolina, 1841—moved to Iowa in 1864, where she was married 1865. Came to Oregon in 1878. Her mother, Mrs. Hutchins, at the advanced age of 84 years, 3 sons, 3 sisters, 8 brothers and many friends survive her. Deceased was a member of Friends church, a consistent christian, quite hopeful at death. After funeral services at Jesse Hutchins, conducted by Rev. Bowser, the remains were laid to rest in Dayton cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Filley, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy; in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by R. L. Harris.

Charles E. Hall, who has been engaged in digging wells in this vicinity this fall will add to his business. He will buy and sell second hand furniture and other personal property; occasionally holding auction sales. He will offer his services as auctioneer at public sales. He will also be prepared to move and raise houses and other buildings. Will order any articles in the furniture line, at lowest prices. He expects soon to open an office here. His headquarters at present, is at Hotel Dayton.

REMEMBER—The Ladies Aid Social, Saturday, November 22, at Evangelical church, Dayton. Supper served from 5 to 7 o'clock inclusive. Chicken pie like your grandmother made. Fried and roast chicken, and everything it takes to make a first class supper. After entertainment lunch will be served. Prices—Supper 25 cents. Lunch 10 cents. Entertainment—Adults 50 cents, children 30 cts. Come, everybody and have a good time.

NOTICE—APPLE PIE.—Unity Lodge No. 17, D. of H., will give an Apple Pie and Cobbler Supper on next Tuesday, November 26th, in the A. O. U. W. hall. A useful prize will be given for the best apple pie; also one for the best apple cobbler. All members cordially invited.

It costs money to get a reputation, but a good name has a financial value. When it is once made, if you care for it, it will never be taken from you, but will be a steady income. The harder it is to get, the more value it will be to you when once obtained.—Agricultural Advertising.

LUCK IN THIRTEEN.—By sending 13 miles Wm. Spray, of Walton Furnace, Va., got a box of Buchler's Azurica Salve, that wholly cured a horrible fever sore on his leg. Nothing else could. Positively cures bruises, felons, ulcers, eruptions, boils, corns and spider legs. Only 25c. Guaranteed by C. W. Powell drug store.

When your watch, clock or jewelry gets out of repair, take it to W. S. Reynolds, the Dayton jeweler, and he will repair it for you in good shape and at a little cost. All descriptions of work in the jewelry line done.

Co-Operative Organ Buying Clubs.
WELL NOT BUY AN ORGAN THAT WAY
Join the Co-Operative Club and Save Money. An Organ Selling Plan of Elletts Piano House that Gives You Wholesale Prices.

If you buy in large quantities or at wholesale, you get better price than if you buy in retail way. If a large number of people buy at once, they get a better figure than buying singly. That's the idea of organ buying clubs. By joining organ clubs at Elletts' Piano House you get wholesale prices on the finest organs, by paying small sums, $5 and $8, and making weekly payments of 50 cts to $1. The discount you get on price is beyond anything you have ever known. All regular $65, $75 and $90 organs with two sets of reeds, go to club members at prices ranging at $38, $46 and $58. The organs are guaranteed by manufacturer and this house. This sale includes finest toned organs in cases of fancy walnut and mahogany and quarter sawn oak. Factors states that retail price of $135 and $150, reduced in same proportion as other organs. Bear in mind you get your organ in your house as soon as first payment is made, and at once enjoy music in your home. When you want to buy a piano you can turn your organ in at what you paid for it, as payment.

There are also two organ clubs, limited to but members each.
Club "O-A" members secure a fine new organ by paying $100 in weekly payments of $10. Members of Club "O-B" will deposit $20, and then $10 weekly.

We like to have you come in and see our instruments and judge of the "snap" you are now in a position to get. If you cannot do this write us. Full information will be forwarded you, and purchase will be looked after as carefully as if selection were made by yourself.

CHICKENS FOR SALE.—The undersigned has a lot of Plymouth Rock Pullets which he will dispose of. Those desiring to purchase chickens should call on MORRIS CAIN, Dayton, Oregon.

ESTRAY NOTICE.—Taken up at my place 3 miles south of Dayton, one last spring's calf. Owner can have same by proving property and paying charges. J. W. COOVER.

POUND NOTICE.
I have this 14th day of November, 1902, taken and impounded, according to the ordinances of the town of La Fayette, Yamhill County, Oregon, one black and white spotted cow, left ear slit, right ear undercut and upper lip. If not claimed before the 24th day of November, at one o'clock p. m. I will sell the animal at public sale to the highest bidder. J. BIPPLY, Marshal.

Notice of Final Settlement.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE undersigned J. B. BIPPLY, as the executor of the estate of B. M. Robinson deceased, has filed a final account as such executor with the County Court of Yamhill County, Oregon, and said Court has appointed the 5th day of January, A. D. 1903, the 10th day of October in the forenoon of said day, at the County Court, as the time and place for the final hearing of said final account.

And therefore, all persons are hereby notified to be and appear at said time and place, and to show cause why they have, pray, said account should not be allowed. And state never and finally settled, and said executor discharged and his bondmen exonerated. Dated this November 18th, 1902. J. B. BIPPLY, Executor of said Estate. F. W. FRYSON, Attorney for Estate.

MOTHERHOOD

The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate, disengagements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriages; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years. Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

WINE OF CARDUI

125 Market Street, Memphis, Tenn. April 16, 1902. In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Thord's Black-Drummond. I had never married before and had never given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 25, 1902. I feel as well as any person could feel. My home is happy and I never will give up my Wine of Cardui as long as I live. Mrs. J. W. C. SMITH.
