

DAYTON HERALD

FRIDAY, JULY 1, 1904.

There is a great amount of fruit being put up at the cannery in Salem. They have finished canning strawberries and are now canning cherries. This is a profitable industry for the Capital City; it gives employ to near 200 people—mostly women and girls.

Marshall Earl made three arrests on Saturday evening. One drunk and two for fighting. The parties, each were fined $5 and costs. The pugilists contributed $14 to the city treasury; the drunk served time. The marshal says he means business, and all lawbreakers will have to abide the consequences of their acts.

A STUPENDOUS EVENT.

The great Mardi Gras Carnival now being held in Portland, Or., is the most stirring and magnificent occurrence of its kind that has yet been planned and carried out on this Coast. There is no graft or personal profit in the affair. There are many interesting features which are drawing cards for the carnival, among which are five of the Nation's big battle ships, which will remain throughout the carnival, which closes July 9. The ships are decked in gala attire, and are open to visitors. The torchlight and fireworks celebration and parade on the night of July 4th will be a stunning event—worth your time to go and see. The railroads have all made moderate rates from all points to Portland and return with stop over privileges for the carnival.

EDITOR HERALD:—In last week's issue of HERALD was communication signed "Citizen," in which my name was used and false statements were de liberately and willfully made.

"Citizen," quotes me as saying words that I hereby deny. I positively made no such statements. If "Citizen" has the intelligence he would have us think he has, he would sign his name to the communication, in which he could say nothing about his neighbors, only abuse and falsehood.

My scathing remarks, as he calls them, were what "County Records" in office of the School Superintendent shows to be truth; but THE TRUTH HURTS. I also appealed to the citizens and voters of this school district to uphold the directors and teachers, and build up a good school; to leave behind their petty differences and ALL work together for upbuilding of a good school. He evidently does not agree with me; therefore, he does not want a good school. He does not want peace and harmony in our district.

Allow me to ask if "Citizen" is a member of the A. O. U. W. If so, my brother, how about the very solemn obligation you have taken at that lodge altar? Now brother, think, have you not broken your solemn oath as Workman? and if you have broken it is your word worth anything? In other words, have you not perjured yourself? If so I sympathize with you. I also ask if "Citizen" is too much of a coward to sign his name, for fear of public sentiment.

Is "Citizen" a man in the true sense? If so, let him come out and acknowledge himself as the writer of "Contributed," so that innocent parties will not be accused of his abuse and misrepresentation. Is he so narrow minded that, because he cannot compel a man to do or think just as his contracted little mind would have him do, that he must resort to sarcasm, abuse and lies? I have no lies to tell on neighbors; nor abuse to heap on them; but, in regard to the school I ask for peace. "LET THERE BE PEACE." I now leave the truth in the hands of my neighbors, and citizens of Dayton, believing them able and competent to judge between truth and falsehood.

CURED OF CHRONIC DIARRHOEA AFTER TEN YEARS OF SUFFERING.—"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for about ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by R. L. Harris.
