MANY CONVENTIONS AT THE FAIR.

Portland, Jan. 9—Attracted by prospect of a trans-continental trip, by the fame of Portland being one of the most beautiful cities in the United States, and by the stories of great things to be seen at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, many associations of land wide membership are planning to hold conventions at Portland next summer during the Centennial. Most of the conventions will be held in Festival Hall at the Exposition, where the large auditorium, built for such purposes, will be found an attractive meeting place. Other associations which arranged to hold their annual meetings at other cities have planned to attend the Fair in a body. The total number of gatherings so far scheduled is about 30, and these will bring an aggregate of 30,000 people to the Fair. Besides these, many other national organizations, will probably plan for conventions to be held at the Western World's Fair.

Probably the most important from a scientific standpoint at least, will be the convention of the American Medical Association, which will be held July 11-14, and bring 2,500 doctors, many of national or world wide fame. The Associated Fraternities of America will meet 2,000 strong, the National Good Roads Association will bring together as many members, and the National Association of Letter Carriers will probably bring 3,000 to the Exposition. About 1000 knights of the grip will attend the convention of United Commercial Travelers of Oregon and Washington, and as many of the Order of Railway Conductors will meet in convention. The Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias, of Oregon is expected to meet 1,000 strong, and there will probably be as many in attendance at the sessions of the Masonic Veteran Association of the Pacific Coast.

The National Editorial Association which will meet at Guthrie, O. T., will, after its convention, take a 25 day trip visiting many points of interest in California and other western states, and spending several days at the Fair. Two special trains will be necessary to convey the party, which will number at least 1,500. The National Lumber Dealers Association, which will meet at Omaha, will visit the Exposition afterwards, coming west on a special train. The National Association of Railroad Commissioners will likewise have a special train to convey its members to Portland after meeting in convention at Deadwood, N. D.

A number of specially conducted excursions will bring many persons to the Fair. Probably the largest of these will be that which is being planned by the California Promotion Committee, of which Rufus P. Jennings is secretary. Mr. Jennings expects to run several special trains to Portland on or about the opening date, June 1, and has invited many distinguished educators, statesmen and business men to join the party. The Missouri Pacific Railroad will run a specially conducted excursion, which, starting at Indianapolis June 25, will provide for visiting many points of interest in the west and for several days at the Fair. Mrs. E. M. Cuthbert of Toronto, Canada, the well-known lecturer, who brought a party to the coast last year, will conduct an excursion to the Lewis and Clark Exposition at Portland. The McCormick agency of Philadelphia will bring another party, and J. J. Freeland of Washington, D. C., will manage a specially conducted excursion from eastern points.

Portland offers many attractions for visitors that other cities cannot boast. Known far and wide as the "Rose City," it is at its best in the summer time, when the mild, cool climate assures relief from the oppressiveness of eastern and middle-west heat, and nature refreshed by the winter rains, shows her satisfaction by covering the city with a wealth of green and a riot of blooming flowers. The Exposition, tho' smaller than that at St. Louis, will, be in many ways more attractive-being compactly laid out, and designed to emphasize to easterners the wealth and greatness of the western country. Hotel accommodations in Portland are of the best, and no extortion will be permitted. Besides a large number of first class hostelries, the city is covered with lodging houses, and thousands of people will open their homes to visitors at a reasonable rate.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY ABSOLUTELY HARMLESS.—The fault of giving children medicine containing injurious substances, is sometimes more disastrous than the disease from which they are suffering. Every mother should know Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly safe for children to take. It contains nothing harmful and for coughs, colds and croup is unsurpassed. For sale by R. L. Harris.

PLAIN WORK BY PLAIN PEOPLE

In Lawmaking and Local Improvement. By One Who Tries to be Plain.

The brief statement in last week's Telephone Register of the intent to write a series of articles on the topic at the head of this, was hurriedly written and given to the only county paper that had space for it, on account of the brief time intervening between the County League Convention and the time for our county papers to go to press. The Telephone Register being the last to do so.

I want to divest myself of all thought of personal interest or gain of notoriety in these articles, and write as a man writing his last will and testament to his children. Absolutely ignoring parties, creed and class interests. Writing direct by to the active, living men, women and school children of my county and state, and I would be glad to know they read it and read with intent to act. At same time to criticise if they see opportunity for improvement.

Two hundred men and women stood up at the convention here last week and agreed each, to write a letter or send a paper to some one in the east, telling about the resources and advantages of living here. We want the school children in each school district in the county to do the same.

Go to some new comer and each of you get 10 names of parties in the east who talk of coming west this year and send them a copy of your county paper containing a write-up of your county or locality, and send a card or letter at the time telling that it is with Mr. or Mrs. so and so's compliments, giving name of persons who gave you the list, and ask them to write to the secretary of your Club for further information. Find out who has a farm for sale, or a tract of land of any kind and make arrangements for him to pay your Club a commission for finding a purchaser. If you make a sale of a tract for $1000 and get 5 per cent commission this will put $50 in your Club treasury. A better way is to get a large tract and divide it up. Most farms in this county are much too large. When you have secured the contract for the sale of a tract of land write a brief description of it, tell what it will produce, and all the facts you can about it and send to all the names you can get hold of, that are likely to come west this year, and if not coming, request them to hand your letter and papers to some one who may come. Some of your boys could make a number of small maps of the tract and send to persons who write for particulars. Show the location homes, woodlands, streams, orchards, grainland, pasture, etc.

The commission that your Club is to receive will pay you to write many letters and buy and send many papers and pamphlets. Your county papers cannot give away all of their extra copies but they will be very reasonable if your Club will buy them by the bundle. You should subscribe for several papers and find out which looks the best and has best write ups. County papers are the best advertising medium we can get, next to your letters.

Write a brief description of your town or school district and send to the county paper you intend to send East. Several descriptions may be written by different pupils, then pick out the best. Send a small county map it you can, with a red dot where your place is located.

Organize your Club at once whether of men, women, boys or girls, any or all, get your teachers to help you. A few minutes at noon hours if you cannot find any other time. Elect officers and appoint some committees, to get names and look for land to sell. Men and women can manage and direct, boys and girls can do the writing and hustling.

Many, many thousand people are coming to this good country of ours: See who will get the first and the most. Tell them the truth in everything, do not deceive people to get them here. They are to be your neighbors. Tell them the truth and be good to them when they come. They will be best help in the world to give names and help to get others. We have room for many thousand more good homes. Get papa or Uncle John, or Mr. Jones to let you have tract of land to sell. Good homes can be made on small tracts in this country.

Write me when you get ready for work or want to know anything about the business. Get to work quickly, the people are coming. I have many good things to tell you,

J. C. COOPER.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THE BEST MADE.—"In my opinion Chamberlains Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs Cora Walter of Porterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after once having used this remedy. For sale by R. L. Harris.
