Found.—A black velvet cape owner can have cape by calling a this office, proving property and paying for this notice.

Ladies, when doing up the laundry use those up-to-date smoothing irons sold by Nichols & Gabriel. They are much superior to the old style.

Clifford Watson the carpenter and painter of this city, is now adding to the appearance of some residences at Lafayette, by painting and carpentering.

Rev. Charles T. Hewitt of Southern California will preach in the Baptist church of Dayton, next Sunday, both morning and evening, at the usual hours. A general invitation is extended to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Franklin of Omaha, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Alderman the first of this week. Mrs. Franklin, (nee Miss Lucile DeForde) formerly of this city, was much pleased to meet her large circle of old friends.

Wm. F. Abdill has opened a shooting gallery on the lot in rear of G. A. R. and W. R. C. hall. Shootists can now amuse themselves in the evenings by testing their ability to shoot straight to the "bull's eye."

F. R. Wilson and son Herman, of the Wilson Lumber Co., near Meadow Lake, were here on Monday. They report their mill running in good shape. They are now furnishing a supply of first class class lumber to Dayton's lumber merchant, S. W. Sigler.

Jesse S. Colvin and wife of Pawnee county, Neb., nephew of R. Snyder was here the first of this week visiting with the Snyder family. They, like many other Eastern people, came to attend the Centennial Fair, and are much pleased with the Fair and Oregon.

Those wanting horses shod in good shape, will find it to their advantage to call at W. F. Abdill's shop and have work done. He also sets tires on wagons or buggies, and does other repairs on those vehicles. All work done in the blacksmith line.

A torpid liver invites cold, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys results in Bright's disease, which claims as many victims as consumption. A proper adjustment of the nerves will release the circulation through these organs, and remove the cause leading to the complaints mentioned. The Chiropractic system cures. W. O. Powell, D. C.

INDIGESTION.—With its companions, heartburn, flatulence, torpidity of the liver, constipation, palpitation of the heart, poor blood, headache and other nervous symptoms, sallow skin, foul tongue, offensive breath and legion of other ailments, is at once the most widespread and destructive malady among the American people. The Herbine treatment will cure all these troubles. 50 cent bottle. Sold by R. L. Harris.

The days are growing shorter.

The best of tropical fruits at Detmering's.

Those who have stock are busy securing hay for the winter.

The water in the Willamette and Yamhill rivers is now at a very low stage; or as the river man expresses it, "very thin."

J. H. Barrett, who purchased the John Green property, is having it improved by fresh paint and additions built to it.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Morse are visiting this week with their son A. P. Morse and family at Milwaukie, a suburb of Portland.

There has been a good hay crop this season, and a majority of people are taking advantage of it and are filling barns and sheds with hay to feed stock in winter.

Dayton is now a white city. A great majority of the buildings have been painted white. All alleys and streets have been cleaned up lately. Besides being much improved in appearance, the town is in a much better sanitary condition than formerly.

There was but little interest manifested in the election held on Monday, to vote on the issuing $3000 water bonds by this city. The vote favored the issuing of the bonds. As will be seen in this issue, bids for sale of bonds are advertised.

The atmosphere this week has been very clear—exceptionally so for this time of year. The slight shower on Sunday seemed to clear and purify the atmosphere greatly. On Monday it was so clear that, as a gentleman remarked, "one could nearly distinguish trees on Mt. Hood," near 100 miles distant.

F. A. Morris of Newberg, was elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of J. C. Cooper of McMinnville, as Superintendent of Yamhill county exhibits at the Centennial. Mr. Cooper was not president, as stated in last weeks' HERALD; D. A. Snyder of this city, still fills the office of president.

On account of not being able to secure a supply of celery and carrots at this time, to be used in soup, the Dayton Evaporating Company are unable, at present, to fill orders for their vegetable soups. If the company were able to secure the necessary supply of the above named articles, their evaporator would be in operation, thus giving employment to a number of women and men.

Mrs. Wynn, and her niece and daughter, Mrs. Felsbaum, of Toledo, Ohio, attended the National Woman's Association, which met in Portland, and came to Dayton, making a ten days' visit with their relatives Mr. and Mrs D A. and R. Snyder. They left here on Friday last, on their return home, over the Northern Pacific road; stopping to visit a neice to Mrs. Wynn in Seattle. They were much pleased with this part of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter of Los Angeles, Cal., who were guests of A. Rossner and family last week, took their departure on Tuesday. They will continue their tour to British Columbia. After "doing" that section, they start on their return home. They will stop here a few days, and then go to Salem, and after "taking in" the capital of Oregon, will continue their journey homeward over the Southern Pacific road.

J. W. Webber, this week, treated the outside of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. hall to two coats of white paint, which greatly improves the outside appearance of that building. In his younger days Mr. Webber was quite an expert with the paint brush. The veterans are making a great improvement in their building, and show that they desire to keep up with improvements of the times, and make their premises beautiful and pleasing to the eye. They contemplate making other improvements.

J. G. Lewis having purchased the Fenton building, has moved his undertaking goods to that building; B. A. Harris who occupied the building having moved to the shop formerly occupied by John Mauts. Anderson Bros. who has the old Mutchler shop and buildings leased, part of which was occupied by Mr. Lewis with his goods, now occupy the building. They are making a lot of new buggies and required more room for their increasing business.
