prepared for both occasions. An evening program will be given by one of the colleges on each date.

Remember the "Final Contest" in the spelling contest will be held early in April this year. The contest in arithmetic will be held at the same time, and will be conducted the same as last year.

Let us begin to arrange for booths at the Fair. Secure your space early, as desirable places will not be gotten easily later. Teachers should encourage pupils to plan their work now, and to make arrangements for their poultry exhibits. The sewing classes should plan their work with the Fair in view, and keep many of the articles at the school building until the exhibit is ready. We are expecting a splendid showing from every manual training class in the county.
