LOCAL AND PERSONAL

We call your attention to the advs. in this issue. READ THEM.

Mrs. M. A. Marcy and children are in Portland visiting with relatives and friends.

City Recorder Tucker visited with a niece in Portland over Saturday and Sunday.

Albert Detmering of the Unionvale Grange store was in Dayton for a short time on Sunday.

W. F. Parker and family Sundayed with the W. S. Hibbert family in this city, on the 8th Inst.

Mrs. Glen Hord and children of Portland were visiting relatives here for a few days last week.

Homer Avery of Portland visited at the home of his parents, E. J. Avery and wife, over Sunday.

Arthur Hatfield and wife were in Portland on business on Saturday last, returning in the evening.

Ollie Mabee and family had their Sunday dinner with A. C. Darr and wife, parents of Mrs. Mabee.

Milo Bond and wife and Mrs. Flora Fletcher, of Portland, are spending a few days with relatives here.

Mrs. Lizzie Smith her daughter Edith and Vera Hash visited in the McClure home in Lafayette last Sunday.

The Tribune office is under obligations to Mrs. Elizabeth Simler for the first bouquet of the season. "Thanks."

C. R. Watson left Monday for Redmond, Oregon, where he will finish a job of carpentering for the Standard Oil Co.

Mabel Howard is making a visit with an Aunt, living near Sodaville, Oregon. She expects to make a prolonged visit of several weeks.

J. E. Nelson, our busy blacksmith, wrenched himself loose from his shop long enough to spend the day, Monday, in Portland on business.

Mrs. Hattie Stanley is in McMinnville visiting for a few days with the L. B. Stone family, former Daytonites.

Dr. Leroy Lewis, of McMinnville, was in our city a few hours on Sunday last, visiting his mother and some of his many acquaintances here.

The Boy Scouts of Troop 1 Dayton are brushing up on first aid, signalling and drill in marching. Dr. Reitzel will assist in first aid Friday evening.

The smiling countenance of F. W. Hole was seen on our streets Saturday and Sunday. Frank always looks happy when he comes to see his family.

Mrs. E. E. Dill (nee Dower) is spending a few days with her mother and family. Petty says it is nice to come home even for a short time.

The new pews at the Unionvale church were used for the first time on Easter Sunday and all of the seating space including some chairs was occupied.

Rev. M. B. Parodnagagian, an Armenian, gave an interesting sermon in the M. E. church here last Sunday evening, to a large and appreciative audience.

Paul and Neita Lewis Sundayed with their mother of this place. Paul is working a few miles out of McMinnville and Neita is teaching a few miles from Newberg.

There is an old saying, "if it rains on Easter Sunday it will rain for seven consecutive Sundays." Don't put a way your umbrella for seven weeks, for it sure rained on Easter Sunday.

Word has been received from E. Demarsy, who was hurrying to his father's sick bed, that his father died before he reached home. Mr. D. will remain in the East several days before starting home.

Mesdames C. Litscher and Ralph Taylor were in McMinnville Tuesday to see Mr. Sam Huffman, a Brother and Uncle to these ladies, who was operated on a few days ago at the hospital in that city. We are sorry to report that he is not recovering as well as was expected.

J. B. Stilwell and daughter Lena, Henrietta and Ruth Stermer and Mrs. Eva L. Sums attended Easter services at the Unionvale M. E. Church Sunday afternoon. They report having enjoyed an interesting and entertaining afternoon.

During the few nice days we had a week or ten days ago, some of our people made gardens. They had to strain the water out of the ground at the time of sowing the seed, and now that it has rained some more they will have to strain it all over.

The Tribune is under obligations to the following named friends for subscriptions since our last issue. Mesdames Elizabeth Simler, Julia A. Jones, Emily J. Nichols, J. P. Dorsey James Wakefield, L. Wambsgans, W. L. Bishop, Robert McAulay, V. M. Low, Z. Spangle, C. B. Newhouse, Ed. White, Edward Leckband and J. W. Lorett. The Tribune gladly says, "Thanks" to the people.

In again assuming the management and control of the Tribune, we find there is a number of things we will need: among them will be your assistance, and good will. You can be of assistance to us by your subscriptions. We are not asking this in a charitable strain, for we expect to give you value received for the amount ($1.25) you pay for the paper. You can be of service to us by telling us about the conditions of things in general about the locality you live in. If you have made, or contemplate making any improvements in, or about your house, out-buildings or farm, phone or come in and tell us about it. If you have a relative or friend visiting you, or is going to visit you, let us know about it. If you have sickness or death in your family, tell us that we may sympathize with you, and thereby enlist the sympathy of your neighbors. If there is a wedding, or should there be a new baby make its appearance in your locality, see that we get to hear of it that we may rejoice with you in your time of joy. Should there be any ill reports going the rounds of your neighborhood, or should some man run away with another mans wife, keep quiet about it for that kind of news travels faster than the run away couple.
