When a woman hasn't anything else to worry about she worries because she feels sure her husband would marry again if she should happen to die.—Detroit Free Press.

Sneezing was once believed to be a sure cure for hiccups and was also looked upon as a sign of sanity. If ancient belief goes for anything it is good to sneeze.

The word "democrat" is from two Greek words. "Demos" means the common people; "krates" means rule. A democrat is one who favors rule by the people.

"And after they had married in haste I suppose they repented at leisure." "No; they were perfectly consistent. They repented in haste also."—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

"I have just been buying some inflated stock." "And you knew it?" "Of course I, did. My purchases were toy balloons for the kids."—Baltimore American.
