Roy Curtis of Forest Grove was visiting relatives here and at the home of D. A. Snyder the first of the week.

Mrs. L. S. Chapman and daughter Nellie went to Portland Tuesday afternoon to visit several days with relatives in that city.

Mrs. E. E. McDonald went to Portland Saturday morning last for a week or ten days visit with her husband and her sister, Mrs. Guy Nicols.

The Dayton Meat Market is now the proud owner of a new up-to-date slaughter house near town. It is equipped with modern conveniences, concrete floors, city water, electric lights and other late appliances.

George Lendershausen was home for a short visit with his home folks from Ft. Worden. He looks well and seems to be satisfied with his soldier life. Geo. says he sure does some blowing, into a saxophone, he being in the band.

W. M. Christensen is carrying his right hand in a sling. Cause why? A fellow on the middle finger of this hand which has caused him great pain for about a week. He is getting along fairly well at this writing but no more of this kind of entertainment for Will.

Dr. Swick has returned from his trip in the Seattle country much pleased with the good time enjoyed by him. He says he drove 630 miles while away.

Parties wanting berry crates call at the box factory.

A number of our people attended the circus in McMinnville Friday last and came home with the usual song "we got stung." Sure enough, we expected that when we saw you going.

The Fulham family enjoyed the day a week ago Sunday on the Columbia Highway. This was in the nature of a farewell party for their son and brother, Joe, who has enlisted in Uncle Sam's service.

Z. Spangle left Sunday for a day's visit with his son Charles, at Camp Lewis, who may be transferred soon to some other training camp. He reports a good time and that Charlie is looking well and is feeling fine.

A miscellaneous shower was given at the home of Mrs. Emily J. Nichols last Thursday evening in honor of the bride elect, Miss Carrie Hibbert. The evening was very pleasantly spent in social conversation. The hostess served dainty refreshments after which the young lady was made the recipient of many pretty gifts.

If every family in the nation cooked with electricity there would be no coal shortage next winter with its attendant suffering and hardships.

Electricity is cheaper than wood at $5.00 per cord.

It does its work perfectly and is a big factor in reducing the human effort in food preparation.

We give a special rate of 4 cents per kilowatt hour for cooking. The kitchen is cool and clean during the hot days; food is sanitary and pure when cooked the modern way. We have the celebrated Westinghouse Copeman Automatic ranges for sale. Buy them on your own terms.

Another old land mark, known as the Wambagans dryer in the Spangle neighborhood, has been torn down and is being hauled away.

Miss Emma Stermer took her departure a day or so ago for Seaside, Oregon, to visit relatives and to accept a position in that city for the summer.

Mrs. Al Dunn and daughter Wanda of Amity are visiting her sister and brothers and other relatives here this week. This is Mrs. Dunn's home town and she is always glad to be among us.

We find among the people that arrived home last Saturday evening the following: E. Mabee, Mrs. Dr. Swick, W. S. Hibbert, A. N. Schellenberger, Lillith Morgareidge and J. C. Nichols. There may have been some others, if so they owe us an apology for not telling us about their return.

Charles Hadley who is recovering from a severe spell of sickness of a couple of weeks duration has recovered sufficiently as to be able to drive over to our town the first of the week.
