Remember YOUR movie picture show Saturday night in the Arcade Theatre. There was an unusually large attendance last Saturday night which was encouraging to the management.

Miss Myrtle Stoll terminated her visit with her cousin, Mrs. E. Fischer, and returned to her Portland home Tuesday afternoon accompanied by Mrs. Fischer and children who will see the sights of Portland for the remainder of the week.

Grandma Yoe accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Guy Carter, arrived here Monday afternoon for a visit among relatives. Mrs. Carter returned to her Newport home the latter part of the week, but Mrs. Yoe will make her home for the time being with Mrs. C.
LeFever in this city.

A farewell party was given Mrs.
Bert Inman at the George H. Baxter home here Tuesday afternoon last, Mesdames Baxter and Hogle being the hostess. Mrs. Inman expects to move to McMinnville in the near future

Another old timer of these parts, Emily C. Lumm, departed this life at the home of her son, Will Lumm, in Portland, March 14, 1919, aged 79 years. She was prominent in W. C. T.
U. work during the time of her life spent here. She was born and raised in Wisconsin, and the remains were taken there for burial.

A. J. Waller who has been quite sick for a week or more has recovered sufficiently as to be able to come to town and is enjoying the good weather we are now having. He has received word from an acquaintance in his former Kansas home saying they had just experienced the worst storm known in that locality. The main line of railroad was blocked up with snow drifts and trains were delayed there for a week at a time. Many cattle froze to death. We'll take a little more rain in ours and not complain.

BABY CHICKS—We are offering this season Baby chicks and hatching eggs from our famous trap-nested S. C.
White Leghorns. Chicks after May 10th in lots of 50 or more at 20 cents each delivered at your Post Office.
Eggs for hatching at 10 cents each in lots of 30 or more delivered at your Post Office. Miller Poultry Farm, Newberg, Oregon. 15-6t.

A great many of our dairymen of this locality were in attendance at the dairymen's meeting held at the county seat Saturday last. We are informed there will be another meeting in the near future to take into consideration some propositions that were made at this meeting.

During the past week Rev. G. E.
Erskine has been busily engaged at work on his place near Salem, Oregon.

CHECKING ACCOUNT ADVANTAGES

Do you realize that a Checking Account here at the Bank of Dayton give one both a record of and receipt for every financial transaction. Why at a glance at his check stubs one can see his income, his outgo and his net savings all at once.

By the way—one of our new conveniences here is a Check Cancelling Machine. It protects the bank and the depositor both.

The Store With A Push

THAT MEANS US

We push the new goods in—as fast as the new creations appear in the markets they are placed on our shelves and counters.

And we push them Out—never permit them to become stale and shop-worn and out of style.
In this pushing out process our customers reap

The Benefits of the Push

They get seasonable goods at bargain prices, as all goods must go with the season, and the price is the push.

You! We invite you to get in the push. You'll enjoy it.
