Fietta Hibbert, Administratrix.

Let us be thankful that we live, that we live in times of peace and prosperity. Let us be thankful that we have homes with husbands and children to love and to love us. Let us be thankful for the comforts of life. Let us be thankful for work, strength and desire to do our work gladly. Let us cultivate a spirit of gentleness, of graciousness, of brightness and gladness and wisdom that will make all about us thankful that we are alive.

Nature's Wonderful Work.

Nature gives to every time and season some beauties of its own; and from morning to night, as from the cradle to the grave, is but a succession of changes so gentle and easy that we can scarcely mark their progress.—Dickens.

Jewish Sabbath.

The Jewish Sabbath starts at sunset on Friday, because the Jews, like the ancient Greeks, began their day at sunset and not at sunrise, or immediately after midnight, as we do, who follow the ancient Romans.

In this country we have millions of foreigners—English, French, German, Austrian, Italian, Belgian, Swedish, Norwegian, Greek, Turkish, Japanese, Chinese, and of every other nationality. The great majority of these foreigners are conscientious and law abiding citizens.

They work. There is also in this country another class of foreigners. They constitute the minority. They are not law abiding, and they are not citizens.

THEY AGITATE. And because of the wild eyed bolshevistic vapourings of these anarchistic wind jammers and destroyers our country of late has been in a constant state of turmoil.

This continual unrest and uncertainty are curtailing production, undermining efficiency and alienating the loyalty of many good men.

It must cease. Labor and capital must get together on a sane and reasonable working basis, where the division of profits will be fair to both sides.

But this will never be accomplished by allowing a braying minority to usurp the authority which belongs to a sane majority.

Men of intelligence and integrity do not care to take orders from illiterate and irresponsible foreigners whose only claims to leadership are a misguided conscience and a pair of leather lungs.

Brains, not noise, must prevail if we are to live in peace and plenty in this country.

Daily Thought.

He lives who dies to win a lasting name.—Drummond.

Watering House Plants.

Plants should be watered with a spray, not with a cup or a glass. Those that can be moved should be placed where the water will not damage carpets or floors; those that cannot—such as large ferns or palms—should have something spread on the floor beneath them to catch the water as it drips. The water must be sprayed from above so that all the leaves receive it; this carries off the dust and is the only natural way for a plant to receive water.
