E. DEMARAY'S HARDWARE

R. E. Williams is home from a little jaunt up around Albany, Corvallis and other points looking after some registered Jersey cows to add to his already good herd.

Virgil Earl principle of the Astoria schools was home visiting his parents, Robert Earl and wife of this city over the Christmas day.

Mrs. V. M. Low entertained her Sunday school class at her home Christmas eve. It is not necessary to say they had a good time, for as Mrs. Low was at the head of it, we know they had.

E. H. Burnham and wife of Forest Grove, and a Mr. Bussay were the Christmas guests at the H. H. Burnham home in this city.

DALLAS HILLSBORO

H. C. Wessner and family and W. D. Scott have reached home from a few days visit at the Ed. Howe home at Crabtree, Oregon.

Miss Lillian Jaggar of Pueblo, Colorado, reached Dayton last week and expects to spend the winter here with her aunt, Mrs. Grace Inman.

Our list of subscribers for this week are as follows:—J. B. Dodson, Scott Edwards, J. F. Donnelley, Geo. A. Gabriel, Susan M. Wilson, W. A. Kelias, U. S. Grain Corporation, Robert Addison, Jas. Dundas, Jack Anderson, Fred Reichstein.

The Christmas Cantata held last Sunday evening in the M. E. Church was well attended and highly appreciated by those fortunate enough to be present. The singing was fine and each individual singer is worthy of personal mention, but time and space forbids and suffice it to say, each singer acquitted themselves creditably to themselves in honor of the occasion. The same program was repeated to a fair sized audience at Unionvale Tuesday evening and good complimentary reports come from that neighborhood.

R. E. Williams and family living in the Pleasantdale neighborhood are enjoying a visit of his brother, Clyde Williams from Buhl, Idaho, and a visit from a boyhood friend, W. T. Smith and wife from Seattle, Washington. This is the first time these people have been privileged to see this part of "God's" green foot stool and are so well impressed with our location they are now planning on becoming residents of this great Willamette valley in the coming "By and by."

of good lumber. With a saw that's true, sharp and a straight cutter, the right kind of lumber should work well. This applies to a plane, chisel or brace-bit as well, and to screws, nails, hinges, etc. Our lumber will give satisfaction under all conditions of working. It is free from knots, cracks and other defects.
