No relief is in sight for Winnipeg's three daily newspapers, which have been forced to suspend on account of a news print shortage. According to reports received in Winnipeg, the paper mills at Fort Frances, Ont., upon which the Winnipeg papers depend for paper, have not resumed paper shipments which were suspended some time ago.

The University of London is planning to build an institution of phonetics at a cost of $600,000, where 70 assistants would be engaged in research work on the 1000 languages of the British empire. The scheme, which originated with Daniel Jones, head of the phonetic department of the university, calls for the expenditure of $2,500,000.

J. A. Hanson of the College View poultry farm at Corvallis, Or., has just finished the installation of the largest incubator in the state of Oregon. His poultry ranch is one of the best-known among chicken fanciers in the United States.

With much "pork" eliminated, the annual rivers and harbors appropriation bill carrying funds for the next fiscal year was reported Monday to the house by the ways and means committee. The bill would appropriate only $12,400,000, a slashing down of $30,500,000 from the total submitted and a considerable cut from the amounts usually carried.

After describing one outrage after another for which he said he had witnesses, Dr. John Hunter, an American physician of Nogales, told the senate sub-committee investigating the Mexican situation he never had known of a Mexican being punished for killing an American in Mexico. "There has been no safety for American life or property in Mexico since 1910," he said. "I have known a lot of Mexicans in that time, and I do not know one—and I know Carranza—whose oath I would accept."

300 SEATTLE REDS TAKEN

Blow Intended to Break Backbone of Radicalism in Northwest.

Seattle, Wash.—Department of justice agents and Seattle police, armed with federal deportation warrants, Monday night made more than 300 arrests in a sweeping raid which, officers said, was intended to "break the backbone of radical activities in the northwest."

Many of the men taken were released after examination at the United States immigration detention station, but many others were held, and officers said they expected at least 200 suspects would later face deportation hearings.

The 196 warrants originally issued were directed in the most part against members of the Union of Russian Workers, an alleged radical organization, but the scope of the raid was widened and poolrooms, hotels and gathering places searched for persons suspected of membership in any radical society.

Local department of justice agents said the clean-up was a part of a new nation-wide campaign against "reds." A number of alleged I. W. W. were included among those arrested.

Many of the raids centered on headquarters of the Union of Russian Workers, an anarchistic society.

A mass of evidence connecting the Union of Russian Workers with the Russian soviet communist and Russian labor parties has been accumulated here, according to Frank L. Carbarino of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice, who directed the raid. Further evidence of their affiliation with Paul Bianski, deported recently on the "soviet ark" Buford, has been uncovered, he said.

RUSSIA MAY REJECT RADICAL DEPORTEES

Terijoki.—The bands of bolshevik and anarchists deported from the United States were safely across the Russian frontier Monday night, but whether all of the party will remain safe in soviet Russia is a question to be determined by the bolshevik.

Hardly had the last of them passed over the border than a belated telegram reached the Finnish military officials in charge of the transfer announcing that the soviet government had decided to permit only three deportees to enter.

Their names have not been made public, but those favored are believed to be Emma Goldman, Alexander Berkman and Peter Bianski.

The telegram is incomprehensible in view of the fact that a delegation including the wife of Maxim Gorky came out to receive the exiles and elaborate preparations had been made to welcome them.

The deportees, with the baggage, trudged through deep snow, laughing and singing revolutionary songs. Cheers were raised by the Russians waiting on the other side of the frozen Systerbak river, which separates the Finnish and bolshevik lines.

Blockade Removal Fateful for Soviets, Says Hoover

Washington, D. C.—Removal of the blockade on soviet Russia has knocked one of their "greatest props from under the bolshevik," Herbert Hoover said in a statement here Saturday night. Speaking from his knowledge of world conditions, the former director of European relief said the soviet government had laid every failure of socialism on the blockade, and used it as a stimulus for raising armies on the ground that the Russians were fighting to save themselves from starvation. With the blockade removed in large part, Mr. Hoover said, the "bolshevik tyranny" will face collapse when it fails to relieve suffering.

Mr. Hoover thought Russia had no commodities, wheat, flax or cotton, for export, since starvation is acute in the larger cities and the people almost in rags.

Hanging Bill Approved.

Salem.—Final adoption by house and senate of the resolution submitting the question of restoring capital punishment to a vote of the people at the next election was effected during the closing hours. A joint conference committee of both branches made a few minor amendments which did not change the effect of the measure. Three companion bills were also passed.

HOLLAND PROTECTS FORMER EMPEROR

Note Says Dutch Government
Not Bound By Treaty.

HONOR HELD AT STAKE

Nation Cannot Betray Faith of Those Who Confide Themselves to Country's Free Institutions.

Paris.—The demand of the entente powers that Holland deliver up to them former Emperor William of Germany, that he may be tried "for a supreme offense against international morality and the sanctity of the treaties," has been refused by Holland.

In a note delivered Saturday afternoon to the foreign office by the Dutch minister, Holland takes the ground that the Dutch government is not a party to the peace treaty, which condemned William Hohenzollern, and that it cannot recognize as an international duty the necessity to associate itself with "this act of high international policy of the powers."

It declares also that the constituent laws of the kingdom and the tradition of the country, always a ground for refuge for the vanquished in international conflicts, will not permit the government to defer to the wishes of the entente by withdrawing from the former emperor the benefit of its laws and tradition. The declaration is made that the people of The Netherlands cannot betray the faith of those who have confided themselves to Holland's free institutions.

The Dutch minister delivered Holland's reply to the allied demand for extradition of the former emperor to the foreign office at 5:30 P. M.

CAPT. BLAIN IN SHIP FRAUD NET

Seattle, Wash.—Captain John F. Blain, former north Pacific district manager of the emergency fleet corporation, was arrested late Friday following his indictment by a federal jury on charges of having accepted secret commissions while head of the shipping board in this section. He was later released under $10,000 cash bail, to appear for arraignment in federal court Monday.

While the indictment of Captain Blain is the first definite action in the probe of alleged frauds in the Pacific shipbuilding program, it will be followed shortly by others involving emergency fleet corporation officials and individuals in the northwest, according to Walter C. Foster, special agent of the department of justice, who is in charge of the investigation. Cases of other officials will be presented to the grand jury when it reconvenes Tuesday, it was announced.

Two indictments were returned against Captain Blain. One indictment charges that while district manager of the emergency fleet corporation, between August, 1917, and April, 1919, he was also agent for the Steward Davit & Equipment corporation and was directly interested in the profits of the firm through sales of materials to equip shipping board vessels built in Washington and Oregon. The indictment further charges that he received secret commissions amounting to $17,750 arising from contracts between the government and the Steward company.

Exports Show Decline.

Washington, D. C.—December exports decreased in value $60,000,000 from the $741,000,000 recorded for November, while imports dropped to $381,000,000, a decrease of $44,000,000, the commerce department reported on Saturday. The excess of exports over imports for the entire year 1919 reached $4,017,000,000, a high record. Exports totaled $7,921,000,000 with imports amounting to $3,904,000,000, compared with 1918 exports of $6,149,000,000 and imports of $3,031,000,000.

Hurrah! How's This

Cincinnati authority says corns dry up and lift out with fingers.

Ouch! ? ! ? ! ? ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn or hardened callous stops soreness at once, and soon the corn or callous dries up and lifts right off without pain.

He says freezone dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin. A small bottle of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callous from one's feet. Millions of America's women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels. If your druggist doesn't have freezone tell him to order a small bottle for you.—Adv.
