Ennis Alderman is carrying around a game leg caused by being kicked by a horse last week. Mr. Alderman had bought a tractor and a truck so that this same horse could live at his ease eating high price oats and $40.00 hay, and while going by the bay end of this horse to receive such treatment as this causes him to say, "that's gratitude." Since then Mr. Alderman does not go in swimming without a pair of crutches or any place for that matter. However he is improving and declares before he abandons the crutches he is going around in front of this ungrateful animal and try and stare him out of countenance. "So mote it be"

CARD OF THANKS

To the kind friends and neighbors who so willingly assisted in the burial of our father the late Simon Stevens and rendered the excellent song service, we wish to express our heartfelt thanks.

Austin and Aden Stevens and sisters.

A splendid social reception was given at the Evangelical church in this place Tuesday evening to welcome the new minister Rev. Fisher and his family to their new home and his new charges of this church. There was a large attendance of his members and there Ministers and the congregations of all the churches in Dayton, took part in extending a welcome to these new people.

There were short talks given by each of the Ministers and a number of our citizens which made this family feel much at home among our people. Each one there is loud in their praises of the good time had. During the absence of Rev. Fisher and family from home on this occasion some goodly, generously inclined people left at their front door a nice donation of good things to eat such as a sack of flour, a ham, bacon, and other things which were much appreciated by these people.

S. B. Dey is among our people that have had severe colds but is now somewhat improved and is once more on our streets.

The Tribune takes this manner of thanking a number of our friends for a bountiful supply of smelt they captured in the Sandy.

Mr. Patton recently of Alaska, will deliver his lantern slide lecture on the scenic wonders in the land of the midnight sun at the Opera House, Tuesday night, May 11. Mr. Patton is blessed with the power of dramatic description and his lecture has been given a number of times in Portland successfully. Uncle Sam's "big park" has a fascination for true Americans and this illustrated lecture will be just like a trip through it. This will be the last number of the "Yourown" Lyceum course.

Great Men Superstitious.
Charles Dickens, Lord Macaulay and Max Muller are numbered among the great men avowedly superstitious. Dickens refused to lie down on a bed unless it was placed due north and south, and he gave ample notice of his rule before arriving at a friend's house or a hotel. It is said he carried a compass in his baggage to make sure, and the slightest error had to be corrected before he would turn in.
