Milo Parish of Portland came home long enough the first of the week to visit his mother and sister a day or so.

The old time law of gravitation seems to have failed. Everything that goes up no longer comes down but stays up.

F. J. Randal is carrying around a black eye. No he did not run against a tree or post, neither did a stick of wood fly up and strike him when he was splitting wood for his store, but in taking down some empty egg cases one of them slid off the top and took him a swipe along side the head and broke his glasses and made quit a cut along side the eye. Sorry for you F. J. and dont you be foolish enough to turn the other eye when handling egg cases.

The Detmering garage is having a new vulcanizing room built in the front part of the building which will be in charge of Mr. Errol Koch who is an experienced vulcanizer, and claims that when a job leaves this shop it will be a finished job.

Our people and the traveling public are rejoicing that the road from Dayton to McMinnville over the hard surfaced paving has been opened last Saturday morning for travel. It has been said that "time is money" and if that is the case many people are making money by this short timed journey instead of having to make any detours over bad roads and taking considerable longer time between the two cities.

The High School play given at the opera house last Friday evening by the High school students was much appreciated by an exceptionally large audience. The play "Kentucky Bell" was well rendered by each one participating in this play. We regret our time, space and ability is so limited as not to give each one individual credit, but will say in connection with this that great credit is due Mr. M. A. Marcy for instructing and managing this play.

Ray Hord of Portland visited his grandparents F. M. Hord and wife and other relatives here during the day Sunday last.

L. E. Morton who has been engaged in doing some papering in the Hope-well country is once more at home and is brightening up some of Dayton' homes with the aid of new paper.
