NEW SOUTH WALES Has Enormous Capacity for Food Production. The vast acreage of arable lands in New South Wales are rapidly becoming a factor in the food-producing power of the world. New South Wales has an area of 310,700 square miles, or as much territory as the combined area of the New England States plus New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, and a portion of Illinois. The climate is similar to that of Southern France, Southern California or Italy. Everything that can be raised in a temperate or tropical climate will grow abundantly in New South Wales. In the northern part of the State, bananas, coffee, sugar-cane and passion-fruit grow side by side with potatoes, cereals, tobacco, onions, grapes and cool-climate fruits. The products range from cotton to silk, olives, corn, barley and wheat. New South Wales is to be classed as a "new country" and "The Last Great West." Already about six million produced annually, and the wheat acre- forty million bushels of wheat are acres of its lands are under crops, age is increasing by leaps and bounds. The country is largely devoted to pastoral purposes, and wool is "king."

Rann-dom Reels By HOWARD L. RANN STIMULANTS A STIMULANT is something which people take to increase their voltage. Some people have so little natural voltage that they have to fire up on stimulants about five nights a week, after which they are able to get home with the aid of a picket fence and nineteen telephone poles. There are several kinds of stimulants, all of which serve a useful purpose. The old-fashioned stimulant known as a sound spanking has kept more boys out of the reform school than all the moral precepts of the ages. The moral precept is all right, but it does not seem to reach the spot with so much thoroughness as a conscientious spanking mixed with short, bristling words of admonition. Many a boy has been stimulated into giving up profanity after his mother has rinsed out his mouth with wood ashes. Nearly all stimulants have the faculty of giving out at a critical juncture and demanding more rope. Where one man limits himself to three cigars a day, a thousand make way with twenty and top off with four pipesful before retiring. When the family physician feeds morphine to sciatic rheumatism, the patient usually recovers just in time to invest in a hypodermic needle. The boy who goes the beer route is lucky if he doesn't wind up on lemon extract. Stimulants never made a clear head and a clean eye or a happy marriage or a
