Mrs. C. P. Jensma and daughter, Betty of Nampa, Idaho, have been visiting a short time at the home of her niece, Mrs. R. M. Cooper of this place. It is the first time these people have been in this part of Oregon and were very much pleased with our location.

Mrs. Fred Yeo after being here a few days decided it was best for her to take her stepmother, Mrs. Richards home with her so that she could take better care of her and left with her for her home in Spirit Lake, Idaho, Saturday last.

George Baxter was handling the passengers and mail between town and the station during the absence of T. A. Boulden at the Round-up.

C. W. Powell after spending a few days in Portland last week returned home accompanied by his nephew, A. W. H. Allen of Newton, Illinois. It had been some 42 years since these men met and were practically strangers.

FOR SALE:—6 Acres Fruit and Poultry ranch, all fenced. Farm machinery and stock if wanted. Located 1 mile east of Dayton. Cheap if taken at once. R. R. Bailey, phone 11X11. 43-3tp

One day last week when C. Litscher was over town about mail time he was stricken with a partial stroke of paralysis. Medical help was summoned and he was taken to his home near town. At this writing he is somewhat improved and is able to walk about the house.

Mayor Snyder and wife were in McMinnville Sunday last, he attending the Y. M. C. A. meeting and she attending the meeting of the District Sunday school association. The Methodists had a goodly representation at the meeting of the Association, in fact they were the crowd.

WANTED:—A number of good breeding ewes. Write Clifford Calkins, Newberg, Oregon. 43-3tp

An automobile accident occurred last Saturday evening on the road between town and the S. P. station when two Fords came together head on as they attempted to pass a truck. We are pleased to state that no one was hurt, and the damage to each of the cars was not so great that they can not be speedily repaired.

See W. L. WARREN about your insurance.

Beginning October 9th the Baptist church will hold evening services at 7:30 during the winter months.

F. M. Hord and sons, Glen, Frank and Bert arrived in Dayton Monday evening from a few days spent in and near Tillamook. Mr. Hord lives here, Glen and Frank of Portland and Bert is holding down a claim near Tillamook.

WANTED:—Listings of real estate for sale on commission.

Charles Andersen, Box 132, Dayton, Oregon.

The most of our exchanges are telling of the damage done to the prune crop by the heavy rains the past week or ten days. The prunes of this locality are considerably damaged, but judging by the number of wagon loads of prunes going to the evaporator here a good share of the crop will be saved.

Herbert Hoover said: "The present high retail cost of sugar is 100 per cent in excess of what it would be had President Wilson and his cabinet heeded the advice of the Sugar Equalization Board. Had this been done sugar today would cost the retail purchaser 13 cents."

We acknowledge with pleasure an invitation to attend a Muiscale given by the junior and intermediate piano pupils of Virgil Edwin Isham, at the Goodnough building Portland, Oregon. We are proud to note the success of Virgil, for he is one of Dayton's boys who is making his own way to prominence.

J. Seitters and family and Mrs. Robert McDonald and daughter spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Henry Chapman and wife.

Misses Agnes and Alta Smith were McMinnville visitors and shoppers the latter part of last week.

Miss Ophia Allen and a girl friend quit prune picking long enough to go to the county seat Monday.

Mr. Rickson of Portland visited at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. A. Marcy, Sunday.

T. A. Boulden, Herman Walter and Z. Spangle arrived home Monday from an attendance at the eleventh Round-up show at Pendleton which was held there last week. They report a great time and are telling of the thousands of people from all over the west and many portions of the east that were there. The town was a mass of gay colors, broad brimmed hats, bright colored shirts, fuzzy chaps and fancy riding boots. If you here any "yip, yip let'er buck," don't get excited they will get over it in a few days.

WOOD FOR SALE:—Fir limbs and tops left by loggers $1.50 per load. B. A. Felton, phone 9X13, Dayton, 43-3 tp

Of Interest to the Industry

EVERY dairyman and stockraiser will be interested in the coming Pacific International Live-stock Exposition in Portland November 13-20. It will be a means of exhibiting not only his own prize animals, but profit by the experience of others.

The Bank of Dayton urges attendance, and as usual extends its good cooperation to those who can feasibly increase or improve their herds.

Make More Money

By Feeding a Scientifically Balanced Dairy Feed

A cow cannot make a record production on mill run or ground oats alone, and the dairyman who persists in feeding these is overlooking many dollars. The Eideweis Dairy of Portland, won for Oregon and second prize for the Northwest for high milk production, by feeding LILLY'S Dairy Feed. They milk 85 cows. A month's trial of

will convince you and will cost but a trifle more than the cheapest feed. If it does not produce better and more milk after a month's trial then go back to your old standby

What's Inside A Tire

Miles or Disappointment?

We have seen enough grief coming from tires that have no name on them at all, or some name that nobody ever heard of—tires that cost enough to be good but were in the end a disappointment.

For years we wished that some real manufacturer would come out with a small car quality tire that would sell for a low price.

Now we have it.

Size	Plain	Anti-Skid
30x3	$17.75
30x3½	21.15	$23.50
31x4	29.50	32.80

Tires to suit the man who must watee his pennies, and tires that equip the world's most luxurious cars. We have thdm and every one has the Goodyear name on it and an unlimited service guarantee back of it.
