Dreaming of the Wind.

To dream of the wind blowing signifies opposition and illness. If it blows your hat away, it's a sign you will want to go away because of a shortcoming of yours. To dream of hearing the wind blow foretells illness of someone very close to you. If you are caught in a gust of wind, you will have some harrowing experience very soon. To dream of seeing a windmill is a sign you will have a loss.—Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Different Thermometric Scales.

The scale employed by a thermometer is indicated by one of the initial letters F., C., R., or by the name, Fahrenheit, Centigrade, Reaumur. The degrees of one thermometric scale are readily converted into those of another. Following is their relationship: 180 degrees F. equals 100 degrees C., equals 80 degrees R. Therefore 1 degree F. equals five-ninths of a degree C., equals four-ninths of a degree R.

Odd Wedding Arrangements.

A young professor of physical culture married a beautiful and athletic pupil of his in the suburbs of Paris. The couple appeared before the mayor in tennis costume, and after the ceremony the wedding party sat down to breakfast on the banks of the Seine. Hardly was the coffee finished than, on a given signal, the whole party retired and reappeared in bathing costume. Later the couple started on a bicycle tour for a honeymoon.

Wonderful Asphalt Lake.
The asphalt lake of Trinidad is situated at Brighton, 12 miles west of San Fernando, 27 miles south of Port of Spain and about half a mile from the gulf of Paria. The lake itself is a flat area of approximately 120 acres, forming a basin surrounded by a low hill. The original elevation of the lake surface was 137 1/2 feet above sea level, but mining operations had lowered this elevation to about 130 feet in 1918.

Make Address Sure.
When wrapping magazines for the mail, the important thing is to make sure that the magazine and its wrapper will not part company. Lay a cord lengthwise inside the magazine, and after sealing and addressing the wrapper, tie the cord once the long way and once around the middle of the roll.

"Crooked Usage."
This curious name for a London street possibly arose from the fact that the word "usage" in former times was applied to the strips of common land, or paths, between private plots of cultivated land. London's "Crooked Usage" street was probably one of these paths.

Waterspouts and Cloudbursts.
A cloudburst is simply a sudden copious rainfall, as if the whole cloud had been precipitated at once. Waterspouts are bursting rain-clouds, accompanied by whirlwind, which whip the rain into dense, whirling columns of water.

Washington's Peculiar Hobby.
George Washington's principal diversion was training baby foxes. He was fond of fox hunting. He took the animals home, and trained them in all kinds of tricks, which he often exhibited to friends.

Romantic Bohemia.

All Bohemia is a land of romance. In the hills and mountains there are picturesque castles perched upon the craggy mountains or concealed cleverly in rocky clefts. The very name Bohemia is associated with wild and wonderful legends of the rude barbaric ages. It has been the battleground of nations. Today it is the land of story and legend, as in the olden days it was the land of loyal knights and robber barons.—Youth's Companion.

Austria's Salt Monopoly.

The Austrian monopoly on salt ruined all the salt industries for a period of 146 years. There are no data up to the time of the partitioning of Poland, but it can safely be said that the salt mines of Galicia supplied about 100,000 tons of salt yearly. Wieliczka about 24,000 tons and Bochnia 17,000 tons. There were no other salt mines in Poland in the year 1772.—Baltimore American.

Thought He had Treasure Trove.

Harry Lee, a negro laborer, helping to pull down an old residence in Baltimore, unearthed a metal box about a foot in diameter, expectantly removed the rusty lid, and found inside a sack containing several old coins, dated in the early part of the eighteenth century, and two old flints.

Worth Cultivating.

It is not a thing divine to have a smile which, none know how, has the power to lighten the weight of that enormous chain which all the living in common drag behind them?—Victor Hugo.

"Father of the Automobile?"

The Blighter Blighted.

There is nothing that quite so quickly and so definitely marks a man or a woman as being ill-bred as incivility. Being rude, ungracious, impolite, inconsiderate, bad-mannered, is evidence of the grossest ignorance and worse—evidence of utter contempt of mankind. The uncivil can and do blight the happiness and comfort of people many times, but in the end they themselves are the real victims.—Silent Partner.

Evolution of the Harp.

The modern harp has been evolved from types found among the Egyptians, Assyrians, Hebrews and various Celtic nations. No doubt the harp originated in the archery of olden times, and the twang of the released bow string.
