The water rates, which have been adjusted by cities and towns owning their own plants to meet changed conditions, now are 50 to 150 per cent higher than in 1913. Water rates of private plants have been increased only about 25 per cent.

The 17 per cent increase in "lighting rates" is the average increase over the country with those companies which have had rate increases.

Your power company seeks the public good will. It builds with the communities it serves. It is a constructive agency, striving in every way to help build up. To keep them financially sound in order that they may keep pace with progressive development is a necessity. Good service, at reasonable rates, is all that is required. We wish you to remember that notwithstanding the tremendous increase in every imaginable thing, electric service has remained the same without any increase in cost to the consumer.
