Miss Hester Hibbert was the guest of her friend Miss Dorothy Erskine at Quinby Park, from Friday evening to Sunday evening.

Last Sunday about 1 o'clock the ringing of the fire bell aroused our people from their noon day meal, and every body immediately ceased eating and responded to the fire alarm which proved to be a chimney fire at the residence of Elmer Parish in what is commonly known as the Ott house just across the river from town. Quite a hole was burned in the roof before the fire was extinguished. In dollars and cents the damage was small.

Frank LaPort is continuing to improve from his attack of blood poisoning and was home for the day Sunday.

Everett McDonald and wife made their relatives in this city an unexpected visit Sunday for a few hours. It has been some months since they were in their old home town and the way they enjoyed being home once more, was some to see.

Mrs. E. J. Nichols and daughter Lulu left Tuesday afternoon for a few days visit with relatives in Portland expecting to be home Saturday next.

J. G. Park and wife of Dayton were seen on the streets of McMinnville Tuesday of this week.

Our sister city of McMinnville is making arrangements for a Glorious Fourth of July Celebration. Plans are on foot for a three day celebration. This means that the celebration will be one worthy of the city and that business men and citizens generally will be glad to co operate with the Legion boys in this undertaking.

Would it not be suggestive at least to have a few signs put up on the new Camp ground that the ladies are beautifying like the following Leave a Clean camp and a Dead fire. Your Camp Fire, build it on dirt. Scrape around it. Put it out before you leave. Bury it. Where there is smoke there is fire. Before you empty your pipe, or throw away a match, be sure it is out.

At the Arcade Theater building May 3rd 1921 the organization of the guarantors of the Dayton Chautauqua was consummated. Mr. Terrill organizer for the Ellison-White Co. presided over the meeting. The following committee's were elected and appointed. Executive Comm. J. J. Denson President, W. S. U'Ren Vice President, J. L. Stuart Secy., Orr C. Goodrich Treasurer. Advertising Comm. A. C. Detmering, Chairman. Ground Comm. T. A. Boulden, Chairman. Ushers Comm. W. O. Barnard & R. L. Harris. Ticket Comm. J. L. Stuart Chairman.

Farmer Tells Dealer. A farmer carrying an express package from a big mail-order house was accosted by a local dealer. "Why didn't you buy that bill of goods from me? I could have saved you the express, and besides you would have been patronizing a home store, which helps pay the taxes and builds up this locality." The farmer looked at the merchant a moment and then said: "Why don't you patronize your home paper and advertise? I read it and didn't know that you had the stuff I have here."

J. J. Denson journeyed to Corvallis Monday of this week.

Miss Martha Proctor was a Newberg visitor Tuesday.

Last Saturday morning William Cain who has been critically sick at the home of his sister Mrs. E. J. Nichols was taken to the State Sanatorium at Salem, where he died Wednesday morning.

Develop Your Home State

by

Patronizing Your Railroads

The development of Oregon and its Railroad Transportation service is a matter of importance to you. A vital factor in the development of Western Oregon is the Southern Pacific Company.

Did You Know

Southern Pacific payrolls in Oregon for 1920 amounted to	$11,037,754.93
Southern Pacific purchases in Oregon for 1920 amounted to	4,519,888.00
Southern Pacific taxes paid in Oregon for 1920 amounted to	1,110,038.86
Southern Pacific total distribution in Oregon for 1920 amounted to	$16,713,681.79

Southern Pacific is the largest payer of taxes in Western and Southern Oregon. Southern Pacific taxes average 7 per cent of all taxes paid in every county through which it operates.

To continue these payrolls, purchases, taxes, and provide better facilities and convenient, safe, rapid and frequent service is the aim of that Company.

Why not travel on Southern Pacific Trains and do your part to enable that Company to keep pace with the further development of Oregon.
