

TIME to DINE COMES every DAY

We make eating a daily pleasure for those who know our exceptional method of supplying our tables with the best the season affords. It is our business to feed the community and our business depends upon how well we fulfill our obligation. Try us once and you will come again—not to complain, but to tell us that you appreciate our interest in you. We constantly have the finest CANDIES and ICE CREAM on hand; also Cigars and Tobacco.

John Squire a former well known resident of the Unionvale country but now of Forest Grove, Oregon, was in town Saturday last renewing old acquaintances in these parts.

Last week we gave our readers some interesting Biblical and secular dates. Now one of our good friends comes forward with the information that the 21st verse of the 7th chapter of Ezra, contains every letter of the alphabet except the letter J. Now you Bible readers get the big book and see for yourself if this statement is correct.

Mrs. Anna Westerfield was one of our unfortunate people last week, she being among some of the quite sick people.

Howard Cinnamon of Seattle, Washington, has been here this week assisting in his brother Roberts confectionery store during Robert's absence in the hospital. He likes this part of the world so well that he contemplates moving to Dayton in the near future.
