Ecks Bros. of Dundee sent in $1.50 on subscription this morning.

Jim Penland is busy these days hauling gravel from the county bunkers.

Mrs. S. B. Dey and son Leslie and wife were McMinnville visitors yesterday.

C. H. Merrill and wife of Hill City spent the week end with the editor and family here.

The W. M. S. of the Evangelical church met with Mrs. Maybe last Tuesday.

Now that the weather has become more settled farming activities have taken on quite an impetus.

Peter Swanson and Archie Stoutenburg each advanced their subscription a year, this week.

The Baptists have installed a piano in their church and are planning a big improvement in their music.

V. A. Vincent, County Food Inspector was in town Tuesday. He at present is buying fruit for the Newberg cannery.

Verne Taylor of Portland, son of Wilbur Taylor and wife who have recently moved here, spent Sunday with his parents.

Delton Magnus was taken to a hospital in McMinnville yesterday to receive treatment for an abscess in his right side.

Special music at the Baptist church Sunday will be a duet in the morning by Lucille Lorette and Florence Bingham and a solo in the evening by Miss Bingham.

Miss Ethel Jackman of Salem, and Elmer Jackman of Monmouth, spent the week end here with their parents Geo. H. Jackman and wife. They returned to their schools Sunday afternoon.

Ladies who have not received their plates or pans since the food sale last Saturday may have same by calling at the printing office. If anyone has a utensil that has not been returned please leave it at the printing office.

Phil Gates and wife, and the Misses Florence Bingham and May Merrill accompanied Walter Jackman to Portland, Monday morning, where they spent the day. Phil brought out another new Ford coupe and the young ladies purchased decorations for the Community St. Patrick's party which will be held in the Community Hall tomorrow evening.

Rev. G. L. Lovell, Presiding Elder of the Salem District, will be here Saturday evening, March 20, at 7:30 o'clock, to hold the last business meeting of the Evangelical Church for this conference year. The annual conference will convene in the Willamette Boulevard Church in Portland. Bishop M. T. Maze, D. D., of Harrisburg, Pa., will preside. Many matters of interest will be transacted there this year, and the indications now are that there will be considerable moving of preachers this spring.

Last Saturday evening as Miss Hazel Parker was walking to town from the depot and had reached the Bond home, a car in attempting to pass another car struck her and knocked her into the ditch, breaking her leg between the knee and the ankle. The cars were both coming toward town. They stopped at once and the drivers carried her into the Bond home where first aid was administered by Dr. Barendick. She was then taken to a hospital in McMinnville and an x-ray taken. The leg was set Sunday morning. She is reported to be resting comfortably.

The regular meeting of the Pleasant Hour Reading Club was held at the home of Mrs. J. L. Sherman, Friday, March 6. A large attendance of members and several guests were present. The refreshments were delighted and our one regret was that we must go home and cook for the family with so little personal desire for further dainties.

St. Patrick's Party
The Associated Young People of Dayton will hold their March party on Friday night, March 20, in the Community Hall. Decorations, refreshments, games, stunts and songs will all be carried out in color and spirit for St. Patrick's Day. Don't miss it. There's a good time for everyone. The party begins at 7:30 p. m.

The Road To Wealth

They say that Economy is the road to Wealth, and it is true. Ask those who have succeeded—they will tell you.

Not struggling, grasping, miserly economy, squeezing every dollar until the eagle squalls—Oh, no, not that. But by determining to live within your income, by paying as you go, by denying yourself the things you can not afford, and by keeping your funds in a reliable Bank like ours, where your money is SAFE. That's the way to succeed.
