All Are Not Broke

American savings bank deposits increased over a billion dollars last year. Let's write it this way: $1,000,000,000.

And that's not all the money America saved either. Think of the millions more saved and invested in farms, houses, reliable stocks, bonds, etc. We spend a lot of money, we Americans, but we also SAVE some. We don't all go broke, not by a long shot. The WISE ones are putting aside something for a rainy day. Are you one of them?

STATE OF OREGON, County of Yamhill

I, Harry Sherman, cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Harry Sherman, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14th day of April 1925.

J. E. Mellinger, Notary Public.
My commission expires June 3, 1927.

J. L. Sherman, R. L. Harris, L. A. Rossner, Directors.

Considerable moving has been going on the past two weeks. The Frank Coughtry family, the Vinegar family, O. P. Jones, and others have moved. We understand that the depot agent has purchased the Methodist parsonage and will move into it.

Easter Sunday was observed at both churches by appropriate exercises. The Baptist Sunday School had a special Easter program and the Evangelical a short program and egg hunt.

Mrs. Rose E. Robertson celebrated a birthday Easter Sunday. She was presented with a choice birthday cake by her daughter-in-law Mrs. J. H. Taylor of Newberg. Ralph Taylor and family of Pleasantdale were dinner guests. In the afternoon Mrs. Robertson shared her cake with her class of Sunday School boys.

Mrs. W. T. Juker gave a most delightful Easter and birthday dinner to her relatives. The table was beautifully decorated with tiny artificial nests and baby chicks. A beautiful Easter lily suspended above the table formed the center for the yellow and white streamers fastened to its corners. The guests were: her mother Mrs. George Bryan, her brother Bob Bryan, her nephew Irvin Bryan, and her daughter Mrs. Juker Storey. In the afternoon Roy Sparks and wife of McMinnville, and Mesdames Frank Holmes of this place, and Zeta Smith of Corvallis joined the party. Mrs. Juker went to Portland with her daughter that night.

LAFAYETTE

Mrs. Janie Hembree entertained the Ramona Club last Friday.

Miss Edith Denney was a Newberg visitor last Saturday.

After spending a month at the S. F. Scott home, Mrs. F. E. Fortner returned to her home in Moro, Oregon, Monday.

Mrs. Harvey Denney is enjoying a visit from her sister Mrs. Carrie Axtell, of Seaside.

"Dad" Barrett, who has been quite sick the past week, is slowly improving.

W. W. Langer and wife, and W. G. Courteney and wife were Portland visitors Sunday. While there they attended Easter services at the Eastern Star Home and Auditorium.

The Betsy Ross Club met last Friday afternoon at the Locks with Mrs. Carl Johnson.

R. F. Brockman and family and R. W. Hanlin and family of Corvallis visited relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Julia Berrig of Laurelhurst, Portland, spent Wednesday afternoon here with her friend Miss Edith Cushing. Both of these ladies were former homesteaders in northeastern Montana.

A. D. McLean and wife of Goderich, Canada, who are touring the United States spent several days last week visiting their sister-in-law Mrs. May Cattle and family.

Harry Nicholson and wife of Seaside, and the Misses Prudence Denny and Elsie Yoder of Portland visited at the Harvey Denney home last week.

A recent social event was the entertainment of the H. G. C. at the home of Velma Imus. Five members were present. Ruth Wanner won the honors in the contest. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Last Saturday afternoon the high school girls and Miss Northrup were entertained at the home of Miss Evelyn Morgan. This was in honor of Miss Clara Coughtry, whose engagement to Sloan Simmons of Yamhill was announced. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

April 5 marked the end of the second contest of the Evangelical Sunday School has had. The winning side was royally entertained by the losers, Friday evening.

Mesdames Milo Blough, Ed. Bryan, H. F. McGirady, Will Morgan, Rose E. Robertson, and the Misses Alice Wade and Lois Andrews were McMinnville shoppers last Saturday.

Mrs. Mary J. Hembree was hostess last Thursday to Mrs. John Resing and Mrs. Roberts and daughter Betty, of Portland.

Mrs. Josie Benham left Saturday for Florida to visit her sister Mrs. Hill, and to accompany her mother Mrs. D. W. Courtney on her homeward journey.

Mrs. Mary Stem enjoyed a visit from her daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Raymond of Garden Home. Mrs. Stem's health has not been the best for some time so she was especially glad to have them with her for a few days.

Mrs. M. Oliphant received an angel food birthday cake by parcel post from her daughter Mrs. E. D. Roseman of Dayton. Mention should have been made last week.

S. F. Scott and wife and Mrs. May Cattle entertained Mrs. W. C. North and family of Portland, and Mrs. Fortner and children Easter Sunday.

Calvin Mulanax came from Portland Saturday afternoon to spend Easter at home.

Miss Flora Blough arrived from Portland, Friday evening to visit her father Prof. John Blough. J. A. Duncan and wife of Salem spent Saturday and Sunday at the Blough home. They returned to Salem, Sunday, accompanied by Miss Blough.

Fred Deets was in town last week. He is now distributor for the Auto Theft Alarm, and his headquarters will be in Portland. His family now located at Long Beach, Calif., will soon move to Portland.

Velma Imus gave an Easter party Friday evening to six girls and six boys. After playing games a lunch consisting of Easter eggs, sandwiches, cake and lemonade was served.

Tuesday evening the Evangelical organization of Lafayette joined with the societies of the other churches, at the Evangelical church in Dayton, in a farewell gathering for their departing pastor, Rev. F. E. Fisher.

Dan Curtis received serious injuries last Wednesday while he was assisting in moving a garage. In turning a corner he stepped into a ditch; the other men and their teams were on the other side of the building. All of the teams were excited and the garage was dragged over him. The fact that he fell in the ditch and that the horses were stopped when they were is all that saved his life.

Emil Lindroff, who has been in the garage business here for several years, sold his garage to a party whose name we have not learned. Mr. Lindroff and wife plan to move to a new location. They will be missed by their friends but we wish them success wherever they go.
