Sunday School Convention

The McMinnville district of the Yamhill County Sunday School Association will hold a convention at the McMinnville Methodist church Sunday, April 26, 1925 at 2:00 o'clock. The dates of other district conventions are as follows: Sheridan, April 19, Newberg, April 26; and Carlton, May 10.

Ralph Abdill city marshal, is repairing and painting the benches in the park which is a move in the right direction. Nothing is more unsightly than a bunch of broken up unpainted seats in a city park. Keep the good work going and later on when the dry season is on if you will turn the water on the grass it will be an attractive place.

The Bank has on exhibition a rubber tree that is over ten feet high. This tree was grown by Mrs. J. L. Sherman but has outgrown the indoor home garden so she had it brought down to the bank. It's a mighty fine specimen.

Mrs. J. E. Deems of Shelbina, Missouri arrived at the home of her sister-in-law Mrs. V. M. Low yesterday for a visit. This is her first visit to the West and she thinks the beauties of this country have never hall been told.

G. M. Cole of Willamina was here yesterday. He is a former editor of the Willamina Times and imagined about a year ago that he wanted to get out of the business; so he sold it to the present owner. But, it's in the blood and his fingers are itching to get into the ink again. He is looking for a location.

All the Neighborhood News

Pauline Forbes is furious—and I certainly can't blame her

EVERYONE knows that it will take all the spare cash that Joe Forbes can scrape together to swing the deal for the big Hawkins farm. And then to have people talk about her extravagance and say that she made Joe buy her a new car. Especially when he did the whole job himself. She says she thinks she'll put a can of Acme Quality Motor Car Finish on top the radiator cap and a big sign above it, "Paint work by Joe Forbes."

ACME QUALITY MOTOR CAR FINISH

All the neighborhood buys its Acme Quality Paints, Enamels, Stains and Varnishes in our store. If you want to join everyone else in brightening up the home in the neighborhood, we can tell you just how to go about it, what Acme Products to use, and how to use them. Come in any time.
