The Bank Examiner

We not only look after our Bank's affairs very carefully, but you are further protected by the Bank Examiner, who is liable to walk in on us unannounced any time and ask to count our cash and go over our books.

We welcome his visits, for when he gets through, if there is even the slightest error in our accounts or methods, we hear about it RIGHT THEN. We consider the Bank Examiners our friends as well as yours, and besides, we have always been complimented by the Examiner. We invite you to deal with our old, reliable Bank.
