

Their Favorites

By Lawrence Hawthorne

They like the ten-cent ones the best,
The toys made of paper and tin;
The cheap little things
That old Santa Claus brings
Are certain their favor to win.

They like the ten-cent ones the best.
The train soon stands dead on the track;
The great Teddy bear
Goes to sleep in a chair,
And Jumbo lies flat on his back.

They like the ten-cent ones the best.
Mechanical playthings are great
For a moment or two
Just because they are new,
But certain and swift is their fate.

They like the ten-cent ones the best.
The simple, enjoyable kind—
The little green sled
With a tin horse ahead
And a domino trailing behind.

They like the ten-cent ones the best,
For when all the good-nights are said
Our four little boys
Leave their five-dollar toys—
And take the ten-cent ones to bed!

City Offices Moved to Commercial Club Rooms

The city offices are now located in the front up-stairs rooms of the Commercial Club building. Just turn to your left at the head of the stairs and you will soon find Judge Tucker ready to wait on you. The old council rooms, recently purchased by M. R.

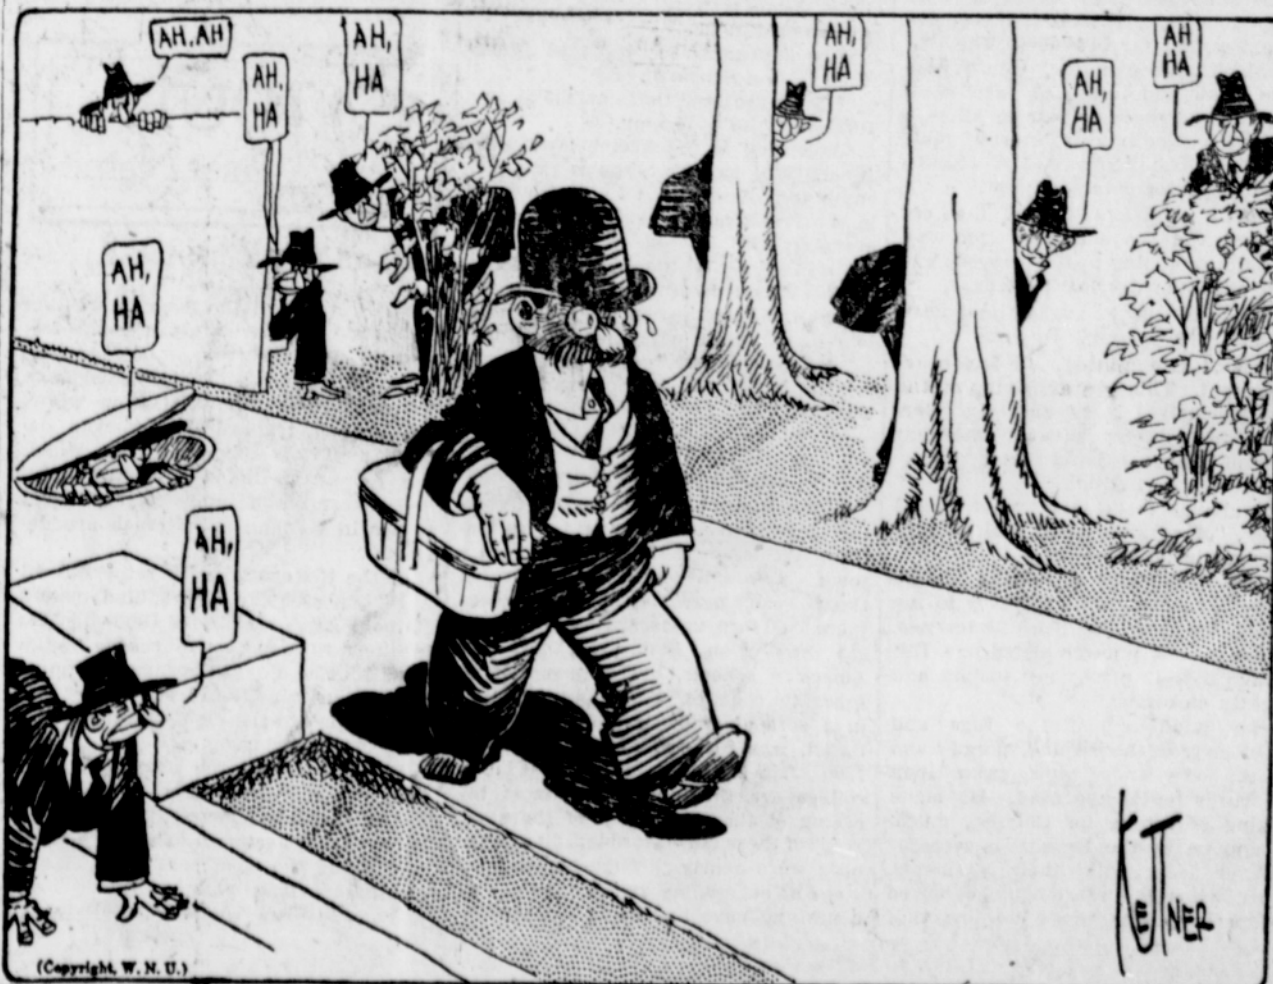

Cooper, will be moved to his lumber yard soon, to become part of the equipment of that business. The fire hose building will be moved near the bridge in the southwest part of town, thus removing two old landmarks. This will improve the looks of the city park considerably as the buildings obstructed the view of the new band stand and other features of the park.

Civic Club Notes

The ladies of the Dayton Civic Club will give a one act play and vaudeville stunts Thursday evening, Oct. 29, at the opera house. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the band stand.

The Rally Day programs at the churches were well attended and each Sunday School presented a fine entertainment.

A Troubled Conscience

School Notes

By Leland Newhouse

The first High School social function for the year was the Freshman Reception held in the Artisan hall last Friday evening. The Freshmen wore green, the usual color for persons of their standing. At eight o'clock they bade farewell to the ghost of their childhood, kissed the blarney stone, took the four steps of high school life, and took a pledge of faith to the high school. After they had promised neither to chew gum nor chew the rag partners were taken for the different events of the evening. The Sophomore and Junior stunts were very good and several selections from the various classes were enjoyed. John Teague, Glen McFarlane and Harold Howarth played several orchestra selections which were appreciated by the students and faculty. After the program ice cream and wafers were served, a few games were played and all departed for home. Every one reported a very enjoyable evening.

A new schedule is now used which leaves the last period of the day for Student Body meetings, class meetings, athletics and other student activities.

A Student Body meeting was held Monday to decide on the adoption of the new constitution. The new constitution was adopted, it being more suitable for a small high school than the one used last year. It was decided that dues for the coming year should be twenty-five cents a semester.

The Teachers Institute will be held in McMinnville, November 9th and 10th.

The Basket Ball boys started training Monday with Mr. Gubser as coach. Several schools have asked for pre-season games with us. Williamina wants to play on November 6th, with both Boys and Girls teams.

The different classes had their pictures taken last Wednesday.
