

The Woman of Today

By O. Lawrence Hawthorne

"A woman's place is in the home!" I sometimes hear it said.
 With such a dictum I in part agree;
 But woman's place is everywhere her dainty feet may tread,
 And where she is she has full right to be.

By what crude law shall men presume to circumscribe the scope
 Of women's interests? If home is theirs
 To cherish and protect, indeed they find their only hope
 In guiding all community affairs.

Home can no longer mean alone the house where children sleep,
 For daily missions carry them afar;
 If woman shall in modern times a mother's vigil keep
 She then must meet conditions as they are.

I view with pride and boundless faith the women of today!
 To business and to social life they give
 That measure of refinement that must hold unfailing sway
 Wherever Youth is learning how to live.

County School Notes

The Levis school, No. 6, gave an entertainment recently that netted the district over $50.00. The teacher, Mrs. Nina McKimens and her pupils deserve great credit for their efforts to entertain the community, and to assist in providing the necessary equipment for the school. This money will be used in purchasing an organ for the school.

J. E. Calavan, the industrial club worker from the office of the state school superintendent, spent the week with the county school superintendent visiting various schools in the interest of club work. Monday forenoon, the matter was presented to Fairview school, No. 24, Elie Cruickshank, who is now in Chicago at the international stock show, as the most representative club boy in the state, has led clubs in Fairview for several years; and we are expecting that he will have some very outstanding stock clubs in that vicinity this year.

In the afternoon of the same day, (Monday,) Mr. Calavan interested the pupils and teachers of West Chehawm in the same work, and we feel certain that Mrs. Crater and Miss Lambert will organize one or more clubs in that district.

Monday evening both Mr. Calavan and the county superintendent had the pleasure of addressing the community club at Rex, in their fine new community hall, and parents, teachers and pupils showed great interest in the matter of industrial clubs.

Tuesday, Amity and Whiteson were visited, former club leaders were called on, pupils urged to finish some projects of last year, and we feel that Mr. Calavan did much to further one of the most important phases of the school work.

Wednesday, visits were paid to the following schools: Cove Orchard, Wapato, Hillside, and White Cloud. We dare to hope that several very active and profitable clubs may result from the day's work.

Thursday, Carlton, Yamhill, The Merchant school, and Intervale were included in itinerary, many teachers and pupils showed keen interest, clubs were planned for, and Mr. Calavan expressed great satisfaction because of the attitude of all concerned.

Friday, the forenoon was spent in Sheridan, where the matter of clubs was presented to the 5th-6th-7th-8th grades. Several clubs will be organized in the school, we are almost certain, as all seemed interested. The afternoon was given to the school of the Grand Ronde vicinity, where the pupils have always shown a satisfactory interest in club work.

Because of the removal or resignation of each member of the school board in district No. 90, the county school superintendent held a meeting in the school building of the district at 2 o'clock p. m. Dec. 4th. As a result of the election Mrs. Josie Boydson is now chairman, Francis Mercier and William Langley are directors and Mrs. May Whittaker is clerk. Miss Florence Lee of Newberg, is teaching the 3rd and 4th grades in the Carlton school. Miss Ada Stephens, the former teacher was recently married and will make her home in California.

Mrs. Thurston the school clerk of Carlton district, is substituting for Miss Abrams who has been ill for a short time. Mr. Hines of the same school has also been absent on account of illness.

Industrial Club charters have been sent to Mrs. Lawrence Allen, leader of the sewing club in district 87, and to G. E. Stewart leader of the calf club in Amity district 4. Elie Cruickshank will also receive charters for his Fairview pig club, and his Dayton Prairie sheep club. Both pupils and leaders will be justly proud of their charters, which show that a splendid work has been well done.

The new school house in district 53 has been located on the Yamhill county side of the line, and is now under the jurisdiction of this county. We are glad to welcome all connected with the school, and shall call on them soon.

C. L. Knapp of district 54, recently purchased 60 new song books for the school. Mr. Knapp is an efficient instructor in music, and is to be congratulated on securing his services.

Mr. Hutchens of Springbrook, reports that his pupils wish to organize industrial clubs. That is a fine spirit and Mr. Calavan will be taken to that district on his next trip into the county.

The teacher in No. 97 wishes to resign by the New Year. The district will secure a teacher soon to carry on the work.

School Notes

A very exciting basket ball game took place last Friday night between Carlton's teams and those of D. H. S. A treble header was played, thus making it somewhat more worthwhile. The first game was between the 2nd team boys of the two schools. The score was rather one-sided, in favor of Carlton, it being 14-25. The second game was between the girls' teams. It was a hard fight. We are glad that our girls were able to win by a score of 15-8. Last but not least was that of the 1st team boys. At the close of the game the score was 10-17 in favor of D. H. S.

We have played three games and lost only one. The girls lost to Williamina and the boys to Sheridan. Our standing now in the County League is 667, but come to our game, Friday December 18, and watch it raise to 750. We play North Yamhill, December 18 at our home gym. Yamhill boys have not lost a game this year and the girls have only lost one. We know that we can beat them, you come and watch us, the admission will be 25c. as usual.

The Dundee high school wrote us a letter saying they would have a basket ball team after the Holidays and would like to schedule a game with us. There has been nothing definite arranged yet.

We have a new pupil enrolled this week, Miss Veroná Martin. She has been attending school at Mapleton.

The P. T. A. met Monday night. It was well attended by the people of this vicinity. A program was rendered by some of the people of the community and pupils of the school. All reported a good time.

The lantern used in the high school is being repaired and we hope that we may soon have some slides in our English classes.

Dean Harding and Faith Wagner represented our high school at the Oregon High School Conference held in Eugene last Friday and Saturday. They brought back very good reports and also said they had a good time. We were glad our school could be represented.

Hurrah! For Dayton Hi !!

The basket ball games between Dayton and Carlton high schools were exceedingly well attended, last Friday night. There was a large number from Carlton and a record breaker crowd of home rooter. The first game, between the two 2nd teams of boys ended with a score of 14-25 in favor of Carlton; however the other two games were won by our players. The girls score standing 16-8 in favor of Dayton and the boys score 17-10 in favor of Dayton. The teams did some fine playing owing partly to the encouragement which such a large crowd afforded them. Let's have another big crowd at the next game which will be Dec. 18th, between Yamhill Hi and Dayton Hi. Show your boys and girls that you appreciate the effort they are putting forth. You will be wholesomely entertained during the evening and they will be encouraged.

Complete Outfit

"Some day," says the editor of the Erie Record feelingly, "a smart man will wake up and make a suit that consists of two coats, one vest and three pairs of trousers". . . There's only one smarter thing he can do, omit the vest. However, if his smartness rises to the point of genius he will throw in three pairs of shoes with the suit.—Capper's Weekly.

Ducks Have Air Routes

Wild ducks follow "passes" the same as a train follows the railroad. Up in Minnesota and North Dakota the sportsmen lease up all the points on the lakes covered by the duck "passes." They know the ducks will fly along such passes. Of the 10,000 lakes in Minnesota there are perhaps 9,000 in which a wild duck is never seen.—Capper's Weekly.

Pawns $10 Bill

A Wichita (Kan.) man pawned a $10 bill for $2. The pawnbroker told the police that the man said the bill was a present to him. He said that he needed some money, but didn't want to give up entire rights to the bill by spending it, so he pawned it for 30 days. The bill is genuine.

Ancient Dicing Games

The invention of dice is mythically ascribed to Palamedes of Greece about the year 1244 B. C. The game of tall among the Romans was played with dice. The early English antiquary, Stow, mentions two entertainments given by the city of London at which dice were played.

Indictment of "Gabble"

As children we were taught to "think twice before you speak once." That was very proper instruction, and should remain with us. One reason why there is not greater tranquility today is because we forget such lessons and indulge too much in senseless conversations.—Grit.

Cobra Sacred to Hindu

The Hindus believe that the cobra once spread its hood as a shade over Buddha while he slept, and was blessed by the saint, who placed a mark upon its back as a warning to birds of prey not to molest it. Little headway can be made against this superstition in efforts toward eradication.

Doubtful Record

The greatest age at which a man is said to have become a father is one hundred and two. This was stated to be the age of Thomas Beatty of Drumcondra, near Dublin, when his youngest-born came into the world.

Happiness in Duty

There is only one stimulant that never falls and yet never intoxicates—duty. Duty puts a blue sky over every man—up to his heart, maybe—into which the skylark, Happiness, always goes singing.—Prentice.

Temple Cut Out of Rock

Ellora, British India, contains a unique temple cut entirely out of rock, both inside and outside. It is about eighty feet high, and is elaborately carved. It was made before the year 1000 A. D.

Secret of Authorship

The most original modern authors are not so because they advance what is new, but simply because they know how to put what they have to say as if it had never been said before.—Goethe.

Determining Error

Knowledge being to be had only of visible and certain truth, error is not a fault of our knowledge, but a mistake of our judgment, giving assent to that which is not true.—Locke.

Pairing Off

When you see two men in the front seat and two women in the back seat you can rest assured that it is a married couple's outing.—Huntington Advertiser.

Varieties of Cabbage

Something over seventy varieties of cabbages are known and cultivated. Some species attain a height of ten feet and the stalks are used for canes.

Rank Carelessness

Moderns are careless; they'll go out for a joy ride without even knowing the coroner's phone number.—Vancouver Sun.

Demonstrated Ability

Men who undertake considerable things, even in a regular way, ought to give us ground to presume ability.—Burke.

Though the cowcatcher was made to catch cows, it does the best it can with automobiles.—Toledo Blade.

Park, when Mesdames Park, Baxter and Spangle entertained the ladies of Hogan's Alley and a few other friends, complimentary to Mrs. Perle Hogle. A handkerchief shower was also given Mrs. Hogle with good wishes to go with her to their new home in Portland.

U. of O., Ore., Dec. 10.—(Special)—Two students, Dean Harding and Faith Wagner, from Dayton attended the high school conference held at the University, Friday and Saturday.

The conference was divided into four divisions: Oregon High School Press Association; Association of Student Body Officers, which included girls who are secretaries, and the faculty advisers. Approximately 500 delegates from all parts of the state were present at the various meetings.

This is the largest and most successful conference held since the beginning six years ago, according to Carl Dahl, general chairman.

Prominent speakers were Miss Marion Brown, dean of girls at the University high school, Oakland, Calif.; Marshall Dana, associate editor of the Oregon Journal, Portland, Oregon; Arne Ray, editor of the Tillamook Herald; Dr. H. D. Sheldon, of the University administrative committee, and other faculty members.

The Oregonian, pioneer newspaper of Northwest, celebrates 75th anniversary, December 4, with special historical edition, and appropriate public exercises at municipal auditorium. For many years it has been recognized as one of America's great newspapers; its constructive editorial and business standing giving it distinction above most others. No newspaper in America has followed more consistently, a policy of progressive yet conservative business development of the resources within its territory.
