On Sunday evening, November 7, there will be a missionary program given at the Unionvale Evangelical church. The collection taken will be sent as a Christmas gift to China. Rev. Fisher has received a very interesting letter from U. L. Farnum, Oregon's Missionary, telling of the strenuous conditions under which they are now working, which he will read at that time.

A shower was given Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Webster at the home of Mrs. Webster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stoutenburg. A large number of friends and relatives of the young couple were present, and they received a large assortment of beautiful and useful gifts. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stoutenburg, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stoutenburg and daughter Vera, of Kalama, Wash.; Miss Marie Stoutenburg, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Noble and son Harlane, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hewitt and son La Vere, Misses Delphine and Agness Braat, Irene and Aubrey Crawley, Arona Gubser, Pansy Withee, Messrs. Fred and Lester Withee, Berlin Gubser, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Richards and Mrs. Webster's parents.

About one year ago Mr. Lynn Gubser held a sale disposing of most of his hogs, keeping twelve brood sows. On Saturday October 16, of this year, Saturday last, Hesel Gubser, in absence of his father, who is on a trip to eastern coast states, assisted by Ed. Richards, held another sale. N. P. Nelson, of Newberg, did the auctioneering. Six large sows, one thoroughbred, and the rest good grade hogs, about fifty pigs weighing around fifty pounds each. The rest of the bunch were shoats, weighing from one hundred to one hundred and fifty pounds. There were ninety-three hogs in all and the amount realized for the bunch was $1,509.95. They were well satisfied with the result of the investment, as they have thirteen of the pigs and eighteen of the shoats left. The hogs were in good condition, which shows the good care they had received. The day was ideal as rain the previous day made it most too wet to farm and a good sized crowd was present, bidding spirited, and good prices resulted.
