LANGLOIS SCHOOL NEWS

(Georgia Knight, Reporter)

The Grade School Carnival Saturday, December 7, was a big success. A nice sum for athletics was realized and the program directed by Lucille Lambert and Larue Henry was one of the best. The Beauty Shoppe was the most popular booth, especially for the older men, who, after sitting in it for a while and coming out, were very youthful looking.

Most of the rooms have made their final plans for Christmas. Names have been drawn and trades made several times for gifts.

Leroy Gibson, a pre-school boy, is back in town after visiting in Myrtle Point for several weeks.

The seventh and eighth grade health club had a very interesting program Friday, Norman Storm taking the chair. Harry Strain is president and Georgia Knight, secretary.

Mrs. Lex Cope met with her sewing girls in the office this week.

The eighth grade lost to the seventh grade again this six weeks, whose average was less than one half a point. So the seventh graders get the treat. Yum, yum!
