"Ah, such radishes, such onions, such lettuce!"

Don't Blame Me
It isn't chivalry that makes a man consult his wife about every deal. He wants somebody to blame if it goes wrong.

Deadly Poison
Professor—What is the most potent poison?
Student—An airplane; one drop and you're dead.

Thermometer Gossip
Freezing—What a fuss folks make over zero.
Temperature—Yes, and he's such a cipher at home.

Cool Weather on the Farm
Rooster—What on earth are you doing down there in the cellar?

It's A GOOD AMERICAN CUSTOM

PITCHING HORSESHOES
after dinner became a good American custom back in the 18th century when this sport took the place of quills.

EQUALLY ENJOYABLE before and after dinner is the good American custom of smoking mild, fragrant King Edwards, America's fastest selling cigar. For a cool, mellow smoke, light up a King Edward today.

YOU ARE AN INFLUENTIAL PERSON

The merchant who advertises must treat you better than the merchant who does not. He must treat you as though you were the most influential person in town. As a matter of cold fact you are. You hold the destiny of his business in your hands. He knows it. He shows it. And you benefit by good service, by courteous treatment, by good value—and by lower prices.
