Mrs. Graham Smith, who has taught music in Los Angeles and Long Beach, Calif., and who now has classes of piano students in Gold Beach and Brookings, has been employed by the Brookings school board to give an hour's instruction in vocal music, once each week. Her time is divided in three sections, one in the primary room, second in the high school and upper grades combined, and the third in the intermediate room. M. A. Steeves, who was formerly in the Brookings bakery and who sold out his interest to Wm. Markham, has returned to Brookings for a time and is assisting Mr. Markham in the bakery. Brookings High School Adds Another Teacher. Miss Kathleene Steeves, who is a graduate of the University of California, has been engaged by the Brookings school board to teach in the high school. This makes five teachers in the Brookings school. Mr. and Mrs. Wes Hill drove down from Gold Beach on Tuesday, going on to Crescent City. On their way back Wednesday James E. Hill accompanied them. They will go to Powers where Mr. Hill will visit his daughter, Mrs. Noble Price, who has been ill. PIRATES' WEEKLY Bertie Lynch, Editor. Friday, January 20, is the last day of the first semester. The only change in subjects will be one study in place of social problems. The boys' basketball team will compete with Riverton high school in a game here Saturday night, January 21. The town teams of Port Orford and Gold Beach will play on the same night. This double header promises to be well worth seeing. Come out and root for your town and school. The sophomores entertained the student body Friday afternoon with two very cleverly planned original plays. The high school will start practice soon on three or more one-act plays. Further announcement concerning them will be made later. LANGLOIS ITEMS By Mrs. Hattie Cheslen. The road men are making our street look very nice.
