

SCENES and SOUNDS OF YOUR OLD HOME TOWN

with Loraine Haines

The firemen's ball last Saturday night, was a huge success so far as all in attendance were concerned, but there were not enough members of the "mature" class present to make it the financial success it should have been. There just are not enough young people in the community to support such a project alone. For such a worthy cause, with all the effort expended by our volunteer firemen upon whom we can depend in time of trouble—I say shame on all who could, and didn't, support their money-raising project! — (you still can!)

Mayor and Mrs. Andy Gribble spent four days in Medford, arriving home last Tuesday, attending the annual Rotary conference. There were 300 Rotarians members and wives at the major banquet. Hizzoner, the mayor, (and Frances too, no doubt) worked in 18 holes of golf each day as an added bonus to the pleasant occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. (Red and Nadine) McWilliams have had as house guests for the past week, Red's nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Terrance Westgate and two children of Wareham, Mass. The guests left Wednesday for California where they expect to locate.

Mrs. Gurlah Marsh is reported as coming along nicely after surgery at Keizer hospital in North Bend last Monday. The operation upon her knee was necessitated because of a past injury, but she will soon be as good as new the medic promises. Mrs. Catherine Marsh is staying at the Marsh home officiating as "mother", as well as grandmother.

Last Friday afternoon the call of spring took Mrs. Geneva Tucker and Mrs. Grace Babel on a trip to Glendale where they visited Mrs. Tucker's mother, Mrs. Ida Basye, and other relatives. Geneva saw a brand new nephew for the first time, which was part of the lure, of course. Returning home via the Umpqua river, the ladies were enthralled by the profusion of flowering quince, dog wood and maple trees in blossom—what could be more beautiful than that drive this time of year?

The H. A. McGarvey home is wafting happiness this week with special vigor as they entertain their son and family, Dan and Renae Van Thiel and small daughter, Shellie Ann. They are on spring vacation from the University of Idaho at Moscow. Their summer is to be spent at Anchorage, Alaska, so they came home at this time for a week.

The Rotary Anns met for dinner at the Cedar Room last Monday evening. President Eva Johnson was hostess. The entertainment feature was a comprehensive review of their recent trip to Salem, given by four of the eighth graders who enjoyed the two terrific days. They were Kenny Mills, Mary Fitzhugh, Kathy Lindsay and Susan Rush.

Edward Nachand, father of Mrs. Tom Meade, is back home again after spending three months visiting another daughter at Salem. Despite his eighty-odd years, he still walks everywhere and makes garden. Welcome back, neighbor!

One day last week, the Sunset Garden club "went as they wuz" or had a "come as you are" surprise visit on Fern Townley and previewed her lovely new home. All was thoroughly endorsed over doughnuts and coffee.

Saw Mr. Egg-Master himself, J. B. Kosta, and inquired if they had tried out the new brazer they won, with spit yet, as the firemen's ball door prize. He replied, "No, but we tried out the ham that came with it!" Some folks have to buy eggs to go with the ham, which they also have to purchase. Not the Kostas!

Ain't It So: By the time the flowers wake up in the spring, the beetles, bugs and slugs are waiting for breakfast—but what a glorious season anyway!

See you next week—and remember, if YOU don't report it, and we don't hear it, the News can't print it.

Back Acres Garden Club Names Committee

Back Acres Garden club president, Eva Johnson, and Rhoda Heesacker, Mildred Rush and Alice Peck were appointed to the July 4 celebration flower show committee at the club's April 4 meeting. This committee will work with the Sunset Garden club on plans for the mid-summer floral display during the annual Battle Rock festivities.

Members were also urged to exhibit or attend the Rhododendron Garden club flower show.

WOMEN TEACHERS' SOCIETY MEETS AT HUMBURG

Humburg Lodge was the scene of the April 2 meeting of Phi chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, international honorary society for women teachers.

Thirty-six members, most of them in appropriate costume, were present to enjoy the program on "Hawaii, Our State With an Asian Background".

The organization extended thanks to the Jensen Music Co. for the use of a piano.

Hostesses were Donna Churchill, chairman, and Margaret Gorman, Margaret Meyer, Wanda Volch, Nellie Zook and Lucy Jacobs.

MOTHER, SISTER VISIT

Mrs. Ben Kessler, Cave Junction, and daughter and family, the Richard Davies, Grants Pass were weekend visitors with Mrs. Kessler's sons and families, Jim and Paul Peterson.

"Flower Show Spring Frolic", at the Langlois grade school May 6 and 7.

Mildred Rush presented an informative program on garden pools. Included in her discussion were how to construct pools and what to plant in them.

Gorse was again a topic of serious discussion that was tabled for city council action. The group also heard a letter from the county agent regarding the gorse problem, and outlining control action exercised in the past.

The meeting was held at the home of Clara Hefner, Edith Rich was the co-hostess. Marie Gearhart was a guest.

Election of officers was announced for the May 3 meeting.

CRAB FEED DATED

Norm Baker's losing Rotary team will fete the George Hahn champs to a crab feed this Saturday, April 15, 7:30 at the Legion hall. It was decided at the club's Tuesday noon luncheon. The feed is the "pay off" for an attendance contest.

Eighth grade students, Ellen McWilliams, Lloyd Rice, Mary Fitzhugh and Christine Johnson, from Battle Rock elementary school presented the program Tuesday. Moderated by Elton, the group told of their recent trip to the legislature and other state agencies.

Guests at the meeting were Jack Russell, Arcadia, Calif.; Earl Foster and Vern Kolen, Gold Beach, all Rotarians; and Jim Wilson and Jack Rice.
