

Senator Walter J. Pearson Will Seek Demo Governor Nomination

PORTLAND — "The governor has stated that there are no issues in the forthcoming campaign and that he will be confronted only with personal attacks in his bid for re-election. His record in office is not personal. Neither are the misleading and broken campaign promises with which it is strewn, and they will be fully and frankly discussed during the months to come."

With this statement, Senator Walter J. Pearson today announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for governor in Oregon's May primary.

"I will conduct a hard, fighting campaign and take the real issues—our lack of a realistic program for education, the imperative need for relief of high property taxes and the justification for universal workman's compensation, as well as many others—directly to the people from Clatsop to Harney counties and from Curry to Willowa," Pearson promised.

"I believe that a candidate for party nomination for governor must run on his own platform—just as a candidate for president does in the Oregon primaries. Not everyone will agree with me on every issue, but at least no one should be in doubt—and certainly no one will be in doubt when this campaign is ended—where I stand on any issue," he added.

Army Seeks Foreign School Personnel

The greatest number of vacancies will be for elementary teachers experienced in the primary grades. High school teachers who qualify in two major fields will also be needed.

School librarians, teachers of remedial reading in the elementary grades, romance languages in high school guidance counselors and dormitory supervisors will be required. A limited number of administrative openings are expected.

and two years of teaching experience.

Unemployment Pay Down This Year

SALEM (Special) — Insured unemployment in Oregon took a significant drop for the week ending December 7 compared to the same week a year ago, both in the number of weeks of unemployment insurance claimed and in rate, David H. Cameron, department of employment commissioner said a week ago.

A year ago, for the week ending December 8, there were 35,555 weeks of unemployment insurance benefits claimed in the state as compared to 24,270 for the week ending December 7 this year, a drop of 11,285 or 31 per cent. At the same time, the rate of insured unemployment dropped from 9.1 a year ago to 6.1 for the week ending December 7, 1961. The usual seasonal rise in insured unemployment occurred during the last four weeks, the weeks claimed rising from 16,864 a month ago to 24,270 for the week ending December 7.

During the past four weeks, the insured unemployment rate rose in the state from 4.2 to 6.1 and in the larger communities thusly: Eugene, at 6.4, up 2.2; Medford, at 7.2, up 1.8; Pendleton and Milton-Freewater, at 7.8, up 2.5; Portland, at 3.9, up .9; Salem, at 6.6, up 2.8.

Highest rate of insured unemployment was still at Grants Pass at 16.3, up 5.3 over four weeks earlier. Lowest rates were at Ontario at 4.0 and Portland at 3.9.

The Oregon unemployment insurance trust fund contained $47,970,227 on December 11 compared to $49,806,963 a year ago. It is expected that the rate of decline in the fund compared to last year will be lessened during December if the present lower rate of insured unemployment continues, officials said.
