Folk Music At Ladies' Night

Wives of Port Orford-Langlois Quarterback Club members were entertained at the club's annual Ladies' Night Feb. 13 with a buffet supper at Whalen's Cafe in Langlois. In keeping with the Valentine motif, each lady received a corsage of red carnations. Selections of vocal and instrumental folk music were presented by the Four Bank Notes: "Overdue" (Roland) Parks, superintendent of Bandon Schools; "Mutual Mortgage" (Art) Carlson, manager of the Empire branch of the Western Bank;

"Promissory" (Cecil) Kemp, vice president and manager of the Western Bank in Bandon; and "First Lean" (Henry) Deetz, music director of the Bandon schools. The group played the saxophone, guitar, banjo, electric guitar and harmonica in their presentation of country music. One versatile member, "Overdue" Parks, played the banjo and the harmonica at the same time. The quartet wore old-time costume reminiscent of the gay nineties. Coaches of District 2-CJ schools gave reports on the progress of their basketball teams: Douglas Wainwright, Langlois Upper Elementary; Jack Hoffman, Battle Rock School in Port Orford; and Pacific High coaches John Botz and Gene Harrison, who reported on the varsity and JV teams. Movies of recent basketball games in which Pacific High players participated were shown by Botz. The movies had been taken by E. H. (Slim) Bennett of Port Orford Barber Shop. Not Too Much

As planting time once again moves into view, one thing to remember is not to plant too thickly. Just because seed is cheap is no reason to sow heavily. Follow home garden information for your area as to seeding rate, spacing and time of planting.
