

Visit From New Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steck with daughter, Eileen, and sons Freddy, Andy and Habbie of Artec, New Mexico, arrived in Port Orford last Friday evening and have been visiting old friends, the Lloyd Whites, Adolph Windmayers, Linda Bryant, Bob Forty, Wayne Thomas and many others. Fred was formerly the manager of the Coos-Curry Electric Co-op and left here in 1950, due to climatic asthma he suffered here. Mr. Steck was fire chief for several years and is an honorary member and retired chief of the Port Orford volunteer fire department.

They were amazed at the many local changes and improvements in the last dozen years. Fred was willing and eager to answer a fire alarm while here, it turned out false.

They plan to visit the Coquille office crew and officers of the Co-op and go on up to Sea Lion Caves before returning to Artec, New Mexico. Mrs. Steck is employed as a city clerk at Artec, a city of about 5,000 population. Artec is in the heart of the San Juan gas fields and Fred is electric maintenance man of their huge pumping plant at the field.

Mrs. Trivett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilson, Mr. Trivett's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Andy Trivett, all of Port Orford.

ON SICK LIST

Mr. Clarence Rose has been ill the past week but has improved and able to be out occasionally at this time.

YOUR SETS

Several squares danced Saturday night, June 1, to the calling of Barney Barnes, Connie Colson and Jerry Fendrich. Everyone enjoyed a good time and were glad to have Elmer Woods and his wife out dancing with them again.

Some of the Beachcombers danced with the Ocean Spray Twirlers on June 8th and others traveled down 101 and danced with the Rogues and Ruffles.

Our regular dance will be June 15th.

The next practice night will be June 21 at the Cove. Let's all try to be there.

Clean-up day at the Cove will be June 30th. It should be in top shape for our July 3-4th dances. Who! how the grass can grow around the Cove.

We were all sorry to hear about the passing of our club member, Fred Deaver. He will be missed by us all.

France-Marsh Vows Said In Ceremony At Coos Bay

REV. AND MRS. JAMIE FRANCE (Maxine Marsh) Salon Portraits

Double ring rites performed Sunday, June 2, at the Church of the Nazarene, Coos Bay, united in marriage Miss Maxine Marsh, Coos Bay, and the Rev. Jamie France, Port Orford. Mrs. France is the daughter of W. R. Marsh, Rockaway, Oregon, and the late Mrs. Marsh. Mr. France is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank France, Roseburg, Oregon.

The Rev. F. M. Landis, minister of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church, Coos Bay, of which the bride was a member, performed the 3 o'clock p. m. ceremony. He was assisted by the Rev. Malcolm Turkington, pastor of the Charleston Community Church, and friend of the bride and groom. Arrangements of calla lilies and yellow iris decorated the church for the wedding which was attended by more than 300 friends and relatives of the couple.

Alencon lace formed the bodice, long sleeves pointed at the wrist, and deep front skirt panel of the bride's floor-length gown. Iridescent sequins outlined the sweetheart neckline of the bodice and an overskirt of tulle completed the bouffant skirt of net. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was edged in handmade lace and held in place with a tiara of matching lace. She carried a white Bible from which white orchids fell in a cascade and wore a pearl pendant which was a wedding present from the groom. She was given in marriage by Dr. Carl C. Werth, at whose home she has lived during the years she has served southern Oregon coastal area as Child Evangelism Fellowship Director.

Mrs. B. J. Trytko, Milwaukee, the bride's sister, was matron of honor. Mrs. Ronald Marsh, her sister-in-law from Portland, and Mrs. Charles Lane, another sister, from Oregon City, were her attendants. They wore identical frocks of pale yellow and their matching headdresses were of net attached to a coronet of satin. They carried nosegays of white carnations and yellow Dutch Iris. Denise Marsh, small niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a costume of yellow.

Alvord France, Mesa, Arizona, was best man for his brother and the ushers were the Rev. Bill Sparks, missionary in Guatemala, the Rev. Don Helter, Cloverdale, California, Ronald Marsh, brother of the bride, and B. J. Trytko, the bride's brother-in-law. The Reverend Sparks and Helter were former college classmates of the groom.

Candlelighters were Rollie Walch and Donald Walch. Steven Marsh was the ring bearer.

Vocal soloist, Elber Durkee, Tacoma, sang "Bless This Hour" and "Oh Promise Me," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. M. E. Noblin, who also played the traditional nuptial music.

David France, another brother of the bridegroom, and presently attending Southern Oregon College, Ashland, played two trumpet solos, "The Lord's Prayer" and "Trumpet Voluntary." The former was played as the couple was kneeling and the latter for the recessional. He was accompanied at the piano by Miss Sylvia Kline.

A reception in the church social rooms followed the ceremony. Wisterian, golden chain calla lilies were used for floral decorations. At the beginning Mrs. Gordon Hanson, Mt. Vernon, Washington, sang "Each for the Other."

Mrs. C. C. Werth, wearing an ensemble of violet and yellow, assisted by Mrs. Robert Garrett, cut and served the six tier wedding cake which was made and decorated by Mrs. Wallace Blakely, Mrs. Anna Ediger, Dallas, presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Herman Walch, a sister of the bride from Molalla, laddled punch.

Miss Emilie France, sister of the groom, from Roseburg, registered the guests. Miss Sally Jacobsen, Miss Gail McCrary, and Mrs. Dick Cripe, took care of the gifts.

The groom's mother wore a rose frock with bone colored accessories.

When the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Crater Lake, the bride was wearing a pink wool suit with white accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The new Mrs. France attended Cascade College and graduated from Simpson Bible Institute, Seattle, after graduating from Canby High School. Her husband graduated from Lebanon High School and attended Oregon State College before attending and graduating from Multnomah School of the Bible, Portland, and Portland State College.

The couple are making their home in Port Orford, where the Rev. France is pastor of the First Community Church.
