Shepherd's Picnic Held

About 200 people attended the annual Shepherd's picnic held this year at Rod McKenzie's ranch on New Lake.

The usual plentiful good food accompanying all picnics was also "extra special" with barbecued lamb that has everyone who failed to attend wishing they had.

Along with the good food and lots of visiting there was a demonstration by Rose Walker and her 4-H Club members with the "Seeing Eye Dogs" and "Sheep Dog Trials" by different county and outside sheepmen.

Tim Timeous and Fred Blunt of Brookings were there with sheep dogs.

Rose Walker, who usually is stiff competition with her trained sheepsdogs, could not compete as her dog was sick, but no doubt will be on hand at the County Fair in August.

Paula Luethe Weds John Noah

Paula Luethe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Luethe of Junction City, and John Noah, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Noah, Port Orford, were married in a single ring service at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 8, in the Community Church at Port Orford with the Rev. Jamie France officiating.

The church was decorated with white daisies and salmon colored gladiolus with lighted candles. White pew bows lined the church aisle.

The bride was escorted by her father, and wore a white lace-over-satin gown that featured long sleeves and plain bodice with a scoop neckline. A short net veil was held in place with orange blossoms.

Karen Luethe was maid of honor for her sister and wore a street length satin dress of dark salmon shade. She carried a bouquet of white daisies and salmon colored gladiolus as did the two bridesmaids who also wore similar gowns.

Bridesmaids were Rosalie Hatmaker and Pam White.

Ring bearer was Billy Clark, nephew of the groom, and flower girl was Verna Jean Pierce, niece of the groom.

Best man was Bob Love. Miss Nanine Libby was church organist and George Dwire sang the "Wedding Prayer" and "Ah Sweet Mystery Of Life".

Ushers were brothers-in-law of the groom, Herbert Pierce of Sacramento and Delbert Fenton of Port Orford.

Following the ceremony, the new Mr. and Mrs. Noah greeted a large number of guests at a reception in the church parlors.

After the newlyweds made the traditional first cut of their beautiful wedding cake, the bride's aunt, Mrs. Miller of Tacoma, Wn., served the cake. Mrs. Dale Burgher, cousin of the bride, presided at the punch bowl, Mrs. Earl Johnson of Portland poured coffee.

June Yeack and Karen Noah were in charge of the guests and Carolyn Harris was in charge of the guest book.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson, Portland; Mrs. Luethe (bride's grandmother) of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Burgher and son Steven, Madras; Mrs. Patsy Clark, Pendleton; Mrs. Herbert Pierce, Sacramento; Ben and Carl Luethe (brothers of the bride), Junction City; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson and son Stanley, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Frank France, Roseburg.
