10 Safety Rules For Swimmers, Boaters Listed

An estimated 6550 people will drown this year in the United States, some 2550 from swimming or playing in the water alone. An additional 4000 will fall from docks, bridges, or drown within 75 feet of shore.

Most of the individuals who become part of these dismal statistics will do so because they fail to observe 10 simple rules around water, according to Edward J. Slezak, associate professor in Physical Education and Recreation at Oregon State University.

- To live longer while enjoying water sports, everyone should observe the following rules, says Slezak.
1. Learn to swim.
  2. Never swim alone.
  3. Refrain from swimming too soon after meals.
  4. Enter the water gradually—never turn your back to surf waters.
  5. Swim only when life guards are on duty.
  6. Never call for help unless needed.
  7. Listen to instructions.
  8. Observe all beach and pool regulations.
  9. Have a boat and two good swimmers escort you on long swims.
  10. Never over-load boats, canoes, and wear life jackets.

When an Aston, England, man ran out of home yelling about water coming down his chimney, firemen discovered the fire they were fighting was next door.

INSPECTING ONE of the many conservation facilities that this week won for his company the 1962 Edison Award is Thomas W. Delzell, board chairman for Portland General Electric. Elwood Madden, PGE's resident fishery biologist at Pelton dam, shows Delzell one of the thousands of fingerling salmon which annually use project bypass facility on journey to sea.

"My Name is Morgan" by William Woolfolk. A novel about the movie industry, a man of action, and the legend he created. Jack Morgan is a man who lives in perpetual crisis, a microcosm of the twentieth century whose astonishing vitality electrifies the pages of this novel.

The author, William Woolfolk, is currently writing for the award-winning television program, "The Defenders." "Six Crisis" by Richard M. Nixon. "Six Crisis" is an original, exciting, captivating book by a man who has been in public service for many years. It is a close-up of a dynamic man, revealing the demands placed upon him, the thinking behind his decisions, and the pressures of political life. Mr. Nixon's story is one of challenge, not only to himself but also the nation. His is the story of six great events in the history of the United States—six turning points, six decisions, Six Crisis.

"The Light of Day" by Eric Ambler. A novel of suspense laid in one of Mr. Ambler's favorite haunts—Istanbul, the most Oriental of European cities. For years the main character has led an impecunious existence, but now finds himself involved in an international conspiracy, with the terrifying realization that he has finally overreached his talent for shady dealing and is up to his neck in trouble!

Vacation Bible School At Community Church

"Traveling God's Highway" is the theme for this year's Daily Vacation Bible School at the Port Orford Community Church. Classes are scheduled to start Monday, June 10th, and run through Friday, June 21st.

Included in the School are classes for all ages. Classes for 4 year olds through the 6th grade will be held from 9-11:45 a. m. Junior high, high school and adult classes will be held in the evening from 7-9 p. m. Of special interest to adults will be the topic for their class: "The Christian and the Cults."

Mrs. Maxine France, former Child Evangelism Director for the Coos Bay area, is the Superintendent of the Bible School.

All who need transportation for themselves or their children are urged to contact Mrs. William Huret, ED 2-2480.

State penitentiary in Columbia, S.C., admitted it was in the market for new talent, but turned down an inmate's application to be a "roving reporter."
