

Newlyweds Make Home at Port Orford

New residents of Port Orford are Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGee, recently married at Falls City Christian Church.

Miss Glenda Van Bibber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Van Bibber, and Fred McGee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, all of Dallas were united in marriage, July 4.

Rev. William Sutton officiated at the afternoon ceremony. Baskets of red roses were at the altar. Armilda Mercer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mercer of Dallas, was the organist, playing "I Do," "Bridal Chorus" and the "Wedding March."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, wore a gown of chantilly lace and net featuring a satin cummerbund with a bow at the waist back. Two white satin roses held her veil of illusion, and her bouquet was white daisies and rosebuds. Her bridal dress was made by Mrs. Archie Smith, an aunt of the bridegroom.

Judi Van Bibber served as maid of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were Sandra Swenson, a cousin of the groom, and Bette Beldon, another cousin of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Beldon of Port Orford. They were dressed alike in white and red dresses trimmed with lace and each carried a long stemmed rose.

Mike Van Scoyk was best man and Dale Van Bibber, brother of the bride, and Randy Van Scoyk were the ushers.

Mrs. Van Bibber, mother of the bride, wore a black sheath dress with white accessories, and Mrs. Johnson, mother of the bridegroom, wore a pink sheath dress with white accessories. Their flowers were white carnations.

Reception Follows

The newlywed couple greeted their guests at the home of the bridegroom's parents. Mrs. Fred Van Scoyk cut the wedding cake, which was in the shape of a cross and was topped by a miniature bride and groom. Pouring were Mrs. Archie Smith and Mrs. Casey Ewell. Miss Sandra Jones, Dallas, had charge of the guest book.

The bride attended high school in Falls City and Dallas and the bridegroom attended in Port Orford and Dallas, graduating in 1962.

McGee is employed at Western States Plywood.

"Born Free" and "Living Free" by Joy Adamson are two of her books about the lioness, "Elsa" whom they found as a cub, raised to a mature lioness and then returned her to her native habitat. These books also tell of Elsa's cubs and of the Adamsons' return visits to see Elsa and of her joy at seeing them.

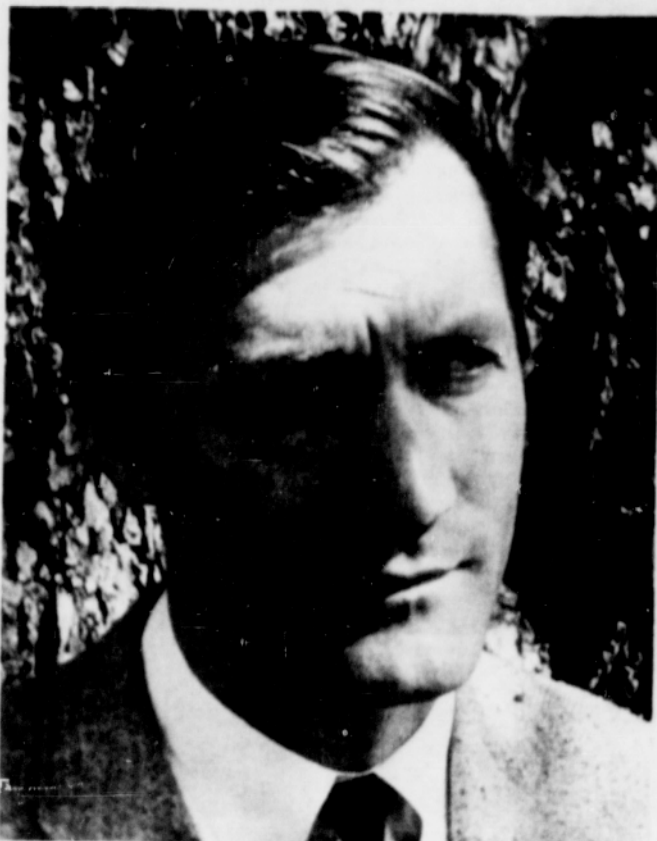

"I Am Only One" by Myrtle Barker. This book contains twelve chapters. Written with quiet consideration, they range from the importance of trivia in our lives to the feelings of loneliness that are experienced by all of us; how the many small incidents that make up life can sometimes enrich and change people's lives; the uniqueness that makes every new day different; how we are influenced in our feelings toward others and how we in turn, often unknowingly, influence those about us.

"I Will Adventure" by Elizabeth Janet Gray, a youngster's story about a twelve year-old boy's life in the days of Shakespeare's England. So vivid are the details of everyday family life in both country and town that the reader feels he has actually been there himself.
