Joan Gilfillan Weds

Wedding vows were exchanged before Father Ervin Vandehey as Joan Nadine Gilfillan became the bride of Dr. David Martin Dietz of Palo Alto, Calif., in a double ring ceremony. The 11 a. m. service was read February 8 in St. John's Catholic Church.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gilfillan, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Parents of the bridegroom are Dr. and Mrs. Wallace M. Dietz, Rochester, N. Y.

Chantilly lace over peau de soie was fashioned into a floor length gown for the bride, featuring fitted sleeves and scalloped batteau neckline. Her illusion veil was captured by a Swedish crown of seed pearls.

The bride carried a bouquet of cascading hyacinths centered by a white orchid corsage. The bouquet held a crystal rosary, a gift from the bridegroom's parents that has been blessed by Pope John during his last audience. The bride's only jewelry was a pearl necklace and matching earrings, her gift from the bridegroom.

Capt. Tallie Martinez of Rome, N. Y., stationed at Griffiss Air Force Base, was maid of honor for the bride. She wore petal pink peau de soie and carried a butterfly spray of white carnations.

William Dietz came from Buffalo, N. Y., to act as best man, and M/Sgt. Roger Reardon, with the U. S. Air Force in Portland, was usher.

Venita Marstall, organist, provided the nuptial music for the occasion.

The bride's chosen colors of pink and white were keynoted by the floral decorations consisting of carnations and stock in the church and were repeated in the church hall for the reception.

Mrs. Harry Helmkin and Mrs. Lee Estabrook, Coos Bay, served the cake to the many local and out-of-town guests. Pouring was Mrs. Duane Doyle of Portland, and Mrs. Reardon was at the tea service.

Punch was ladled by Ardeth Grabher of Medford and Major Myra McClish of Davis-Monthan AFB, Tucson, Arizona.

Mrs. Keith Stewart of Coos Bay greeted and registered the guests, and Linda Gilfillan accepted the gifts.

The new Mrs. Dietz graduated from Port Orford High School and Good Samaritan School of Nursing in Portland. She was employed at National Institute of Health in the Mental Health Research Clinic in Bethesda, Md., and was a first lieutenant in the USAF, serving in Japan and at Tucson.

Her husband, a graduate of the Rochester School of Medicine, served as a captain in Japan with the USAF and is now taking his residency in surgery at Stanford University in Palo Alto.

The newlyweds left for a trip to Sun Valley, Idaho, following the reception with the bride wearing a navy blue suit with white accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

The bride's mother was dressed for the event in a blue and grey two-piece dress with blue accessories. A pink and white carnation corsage was pinned at her shoulder. A dress of Dior blue with matching accessories was chosen by the bridegroom's mother, who carried a petal pink camellia on a clutch purse.

Coming from out of town for the wedding, in addition to members of the wedding and reception party and their families, were Mr. and Mrs. Jack LaPalm, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Clell Kerber, DeLake; and Mrs. Jean Grider and Jesse Grider, Coos Bay.

The couple will be at home after the honeymoon at 267 Curtner Ave., Palo Alto, Calif.
