

North Curry News

By Neonta Hall

PORT ORFORD • SIXES • LANGLOIS

Cheryl Mechals
Outgoing Jobs Queen
—Photo by Lucille Ellis

Langlois Library In New Location

The Langlois library has moved to a new location and now is open to the public two days a week at the Noble building.

Mrs. Gerald Kamph and Mrs. Andrew Madison are librarians and a selection of new books has recently been added, including the following: "Day in Life of President Kennedy" by Bishop; "Sole of West" by Bureham; "Chosen Sparrow" by Caspar; "Last Gun" by Christie; "Taste for Brilliance" by Clad; "God His Gifts" by Compton; "Traveling Nurse" by Dalgliesh and "Thanksgiving Story" by Dalgliesh; "Decayed Gentlewoman" by Ferris; "1000 1000 Morn'ings" by Gerald; "L. Johnson Story" by Mooney; "Boys 2nd Book Radio Electronics" by Morgan; "Butterflies Come" by Polk; "Trouble in Saddle" by Stark; "Man Space Frontier" by Stine, and others.

SYPHERS HAVE GUESTS

Visiting last weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Sypher were Laila Taylor, Pearl Reus and Cora Haggman of Centralia, Wn.

KNOKES ON TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Knoke left Calif., to visit relatives, and Friday morning for San Diego, to Missoula, Mont., to visit a grandmother who is 98 years old, and other relatives.

WHITES TRAVEL

Mrs. Gene White and son Leon left by bus last week for a visit with relatives in Plainview, Tex., New Mexico and California.

FLOODS IN LANGLOIS

John and Paul Flood of Astoria were in Langlois during the weekend.

IN HOSPITAL

Paul Smith has been ill and a patient in the Mast Hospital in Myrtle Point for several days. He is expected to return to his home in Langlois this week.

ON FURLOUGH

Marvin Storm, U.S. Army, arrived home last week from Fort Ord, Calif., to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Storm, in Langlois. He will report later this month to a base in Newport News, Va.

ATTENDS MEETING

Larry Lindquist, manager of Western States plywood, is attending a meeting of The American Plywood Association in Gearhart, Ore., this week.

TO GRAND SESSION

Sheryl Mechals, Margo Samudio, Patty Kalina and Hazel McKenzie are leaving Thursday to attend the Grand Session of Job's Daughters in Bend.

ON VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Preston are spending a couple of weeks' vacation in Idaho.

SON, FAMILY, HERE

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harm were their son, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harm, Jr., and four children of El Paso, Tex.

GRADUATES FROM OTI

Jim Hatmaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hatmaker of Langlois, was among the recent graduates of OTI in Klamath Falls.

Jim and sister Rosalie and friend Patsy Sanada arrived Monday, Friday, Rosalie returns to Astoria this week where she and Ruby Hatmaker will attend summer school.

WERNERS ENTERTAIN

The group enjoyed a week of fishing and boating on Floras Lake and Saturday evening were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Waidie for a barbecue.

WERNERS ENTERTAIN

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Werner recently were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cambell of Eureka, Calif., Misses Dulce and Marian Smith of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Neville Jo Hansen of Salem.

WED IN BANDON

David Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brown of Langlois, and Susan Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Almond Brown of Bandon, were married Saturday evening, June 13, at the Latter Day Saints church in Bandon.

Attending the couple were Mary Yost and John Yost serving as matron of honor and best man; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smith were bridesmaid and usher.

Guests attending from Langlois were Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Sypher, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Platt and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sypher.

VANDEHEYS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Vandehy are spending a few days visiting in Forest Grove and Portland.

NEWLYWEDS VISIT

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Odell Flake in Port Orford were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hinderlie.

Tom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hinderlie of Coos Bay, former Port Orford residents, was recently married to Norma Jean Long of McMinnville where both were students of Linfield College. The young newlyweds were on their way south and will be making their home in San Mateo, Calif.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mrs. Forrest Elliot of Port Orford left Friday to attend funeral services for her mother, Mrs. Etta McLeland, in Bakersfield, Calif.

FROM HAMILTON

Mrs. Jean Shelley and daughter Jo of Hamilton, are visiting friends in Port Orford this week.

VISIT FATHER

Mr. and Mrs. Don Seelye of Eugene are in Port Orford this week for a visit with Seelye's father, Ed Seelye.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A surprise birthday party was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Deaver for Mrs. Verlin Moore.

Ladies attending and enjoying an afternoon of canasta and refreshments were Mrs. Les Hill, Mrs. Eldon Spence, Mrs. Albert Moore, Breta Spence, Mrs. Earl Tangeman, and Mrs. Elton Dwire.

HOST CLUB MEET

The Sixes-Elk Garden club met with a few members attending at the home of Mrs. Les Hill. Mrs. Walter Jensen was co-hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Hill went to Eugene Friday to bring their son Don Hill home for the summer vacation.

VISIT PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Boak and family of Aloha, Ore., are visiting with Mrs. Boak's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Zumwalt, of Sixes, last Sunday.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Barklow and Mrs. T. G. Summerlin visited in Portland last week. Returning home they brought their daughter, Mary Kay, from Corvallis and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Miller in Florence.

The Barklows celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary Sunday, taking their family to dinner at Humbug Lodge. Included were Mr. and Mrs. David Barklow, Mary Kay and Dewey Miller.

AT ROSE FESTIVAL

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilcox and family were in Portland during the weekend and viewing the Portland Rose Festival.

IN PORTLAND

Art Aldrop of Langlois was in Portland during the week on business. Sunday evening dinner

SHOP PORT ORFORD

Hagen, Rider Repeat Vows

Myron Hagen and Linda Rider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rider, former Port Orford residents now living in Reedsport, were married Saturday at St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Gardiner.

Serving the bride as maid of honor was Mary Fitzhugh, and bridesmaid was Marlene Anvinsen of Sixes. Best man was Larry Lacy.

Attending the ceremony from Port Orford were Mrs. Harry Kalina and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Huret.

IN EUREKA

Jean Berger and grandchildren of Langlois went to Eureka, Calif., for several days' visit.

FRANCE FAMILY VISITS

Recent visitors of the Rev. and Mrs. Jamie France were members of their family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank France, Miss Emilie France and David France of Ashland, Ore.

NAVY SON HOME

Bruce Robins of U.S. Navy who returned recently from active sea duty is visiting now at his mother's home, Mrs. Betty Robins, in Langlois.

RETURN FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rhodes returned from a trip east to their Port Orford home Saturday.

Traveling to Canton, N.C., through the southern states, they were in time to see their daughter, Margaret Jolly, graduate from Canton High School.

Returning to Port Orford through the northern route with the Rhodes were their daughter Margaret and Mrs. Rhodes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hannah, who will remain for a few days' visit before returning east.

ATTEND CATTLE MEET

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Morrill and sons John and David of Sixes, attended the Junior Hereford Association meeting at the Emerald Isle Ranch near Eugene last week.

AT GRAND SESSION

Odell Flake, master of Port Orford Masonic Lodge, is attending grand session of the Masonic Lodge of the State of Oregon in Portland this week.

ENTERTAIN, VISIT

Jack Snook of Beaverton, Ore., was a guest last week at the home of Charles Russell and Mattie Mosher.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Anthony, Homer Smith, Ethel Corrick, Charles Russell and Mattie Mosher visited the Frank Marsh family in Veneta, Ore., last Sunday.

BABY SHOWER HELD

A pink and blue shower was given for Mrs. Roy Libby at the home of Mrs. Verdo Harris with Mrs. Forrest Elliot as co-hostess last Thursday.

Guests included ladies of the Christian Women's fellowship class.

AT ROSE FESTIVAL

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilcox and family were in Portland during the weekend and viewing the Portland Rose Festival.

IN PORTLAND

Art Aldrop of Langlois was in Portland during the week on business. Sunday evening dinner

Willow Club Asks For Vote

The Floras-Willow club met June 11 with a low attendance of members.

The club was organized October 12, 1939, and has been active in the Langlois community ever since it was organized.

Contributions have been made to the Langlois Community Church and school each year and they have given a 4-H club scholarship, T.B. bond and at Christmas time baskets of food were given to the needy, and clothing and food is given the ones in need anytime.

The club has sealed the club house with plywood and other work has been done.

July 9 is the next scheduled meeting starting at 1 p.m. with Rose Barrington and Ollie Britton hostesses and will be the birthday meeting. Members are urged to attend and vote to continue or disband.

VISIT AT BRITTONS

Mr. and Mrs. John Clark of Seattle and Mrs. Bob Powerley of Myrtle Point were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Britton.

VISITS PARENTS

Miss Connie Shaw visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shaw, during the weekend, returning to Eugene for special classes this week before going to work as a social worker near Hillsboro later this month.

TO VISIT MOTHER

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Harrison spent the weekend with friends and relatives in Sisters. Mrs. Harrison left by bus from Eugene to visit her parents in Seattle.

Barbecue Is Sunday

Due to the unredictable weather which Northern Curry has been experiencing lately, the Port Orford-Langlois Quarterback club are this year holding their annual Beef Barbecue at the Langlois Grade School where inside accommodations are available if needed.

This event has previously been held at the Nick Marsh ranch on Elk River and the club appreciated their hospitality though realizing soft meadow fields would suffer if present weather persists.

Sunday, June 21 is the date, with the serving starting at 1 p.m. until 5 p.m. Club president Gil Rush urges everyone to participate and to support the Quarterback club which at this time is sponsoring Junior league baseball.

Prices are $2 for an adult or $5 for a family ticket.

IN HOSPITAL

Donald Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bjerg, was a patient at the Mast Hospital in Myrtle Point last week.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

Mrs. Rayburn Guerin spent several days as a patient at the Southern Coos General Hospital in Bandon recovering from a severe attack of asthma.

GRANDSON'S VISIT

Dennis and Ronald Bass of Roseburg are spending several weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Strain, of Floras Lake Road.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. Everett Strain arrived home from LaPaz, Calif., where she has been visiting her sister.

ATTEND PICNIC

Mr. and Mrs. Rod McKenzie and family, Mr. and Mrs. Art Gaucher, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fitzhugh and George Edwards attended the Livestock Association picnic at Harvey Crooks on Pistol River, Sunday.

JINX CANASTA CLUB

The Jinx Canasta Club gave a birthday party for Ann Williams at her home last Wednesday.

A beautifully decorated cake and many nice gifts highlighted the event.

Scores were won by Dorothy Sence, Rose Davis and Ann Williams.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pook returned this week from Portland where they had gone to attend the funeral of Ed Russell, a long-time friend and former property owner on the Airport Road.

ROUSHES TRAVEL

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Roush left to spend two weeks visiting friends, and relatives near Denver, Colo.

Jerry Cox left by bus Sunday morning for San Pedro, Calif., where he will have employment during the summer.

ATTEND SON'S GRADUATION

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jensen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bekebrede of Denmark, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Marsh and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Mayea and family and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Marsh of Port Orford are attending the commencement exercises of the University of Oregon Dental School in Portland this Thursday. Wilbur Jensen is a member of the graduating class.

AT GRANGE MEET

Mr. and Mrs. Art Sweet left Sunday for Eugene to attend a meeting of the Oregon State Grange.

People
Read
SPOT ADS
You're Reading
One
Now!

Sunset Garden Club To Meet

The Sunset Garden Club will hold its regular meeting tomorrow, Friday, June 19, starting with a desert luncheon at 1 p.m. The event will be at the home of Mrs. Fern Townley with Mrs. Marcella Gilfillan as co-hostess.

Attorney Suspended

Reuben G. Lense, Portland, Oregon attorney, was suspended by the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon from the practice of law in this state on April 28. He remains under suspension at this time, according to the Oregon State Bar Association.

The suspension was ordered pursuant to a rule of the Court which provides for the summary suspension from practice of an attorney convicted of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or a felony.

Be Covered the SAFE WAY

SAFECO
OF AMERICA

AUTO INSURANCE
FIRE INSURANCE

SHOP HOME TOWN
STORES FIRST

Red McWilliams—ED 2-6907
Representing
Kolen-Huggins Ins.
205 W. 6th St.
Port Orford, Oregon

NEW FILL is going in on Lakeshore Drive to fill in swamp area and widen road. Fill dirt is coming from the south end of Oregon St., being opened to standard city street width and cut to grade.

SOON
COMING

Ready-Mixed
Concrete
PHONE ED 2-4161

EASIER FASTER
CHEAPER

Western Builders
Supply, Inc.

Convenient kitchen appliance

(with a lifetime guarantee)

You spend half your time in the kitchen. Doesn't it make sense to have a telephone there? A kitchen extension saves time, saves steps, avoids missed calls. And you'll never pay a repair or replacement charge on it. Do you have any other appliance in your kitchen (or anyplace else) that offers that kind of lifetime guarantee? Order your kitchen extension today. Just call your telephone business office.

$1.65
PER MONTH
IN COLOR

WEST COAST TELEPHONE COMPANY