

Kathleen Ann Kampa Becomes Bride

While the bridegroom, a corporal in the U. S. Marine Corps, is stationed at Treasure Island, Robert J. Zemaitis and his bride, the former Miss Kathleen Ann Kampa, will live in the Oakland area.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Kampa, 841 Fairmont Circle. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Zemaitis of Camp Lejeune, N. C., who were unable to attend the wedding.

Their marriage took place Dec. 31, in Sacred Heart Church with the Rev. Ralph Belluomini officiating at the double ring ceremony. Organist was Miss Dorothy Heer.

Morning Nuptials

Red carnations and pine were placed on the altar for the morning rites, and standards on either side complemented the bouquets.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a frock of white brocade fashioned with a rounded neckline, short sleeves, bow accent at the bodice back and slightly belted skirt.

A white rosary fell from her cascade bouquet of white carnations tied with white French lace and satin ribbon, and a pillow embellished with seed pearl appliques held her shoulder-length veil.

Matching Frocks

She was preceded to the altar by Miss Sally Jo Sampson of San Francisco, maid of honor, and bridesmaid Mrs. Phillip

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Zemaitis
Former Local Glee

Ben of Salinas. Their matching frocks of bronze gold satin were designed with overlays of imported French candy floss in the same shade. Olive green net tied off their matching bow headpieces of candy floss, and they carried cascade bouquets of gold carnations. S-Sgt. Eugene W. Robertson carried out best man duties while ushers were Cpl. James G. Kline and Cpl. Dean Johnson.

LANGLOIS MAN ABOARD FLEET OILER TALUGA

Season Apprentice Larry F. Pier, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville D. Pier of Floras Lake Road, Langlois, reported for duty Jan. 3 aboard the fleet oiler USS Taluga, which operates out of Long Beach, Cal. His ship, supplied with oil and petroleum products enabling them to remain deployed at sea for extended periods without returning to port.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kampa chose a dress-coat ensemble of avocado green moire, matching shoes and bag and mink hat. Her corsage was of green cypripedium orchids.

Reception Follows

Wedding reception locale was the Italian Villa where silver candelabra, white pompon chrysanthemums and stock graced the buffet table. Red garnet roses and white carnations topped the three tier wedding cake which was encircled by white carnations.

Miss Victoria Tiernan of Palo Alto circulated the guest book.

When the justweds departed for a honeymoon trip to Las Vegas and San Francisco, the bride was clad in an emerald green suit, with black patent shoes and bag and white hat and gloves. She pinned on a corsage of white carnations from the wedding bouquet.

The bride, who attended Hartnell College, was formerly employed as a secretary and stenographer at Bechtel Corp., San Francisco.

Bandon Women Host Eight & Forty Meet

Cos County Salon No. 509 Eight & Forty held their regular monthly meeting Friday, Jan. 8, in the American Legion hall at Bandon. Mrs. Wm. Montgomery, president, presided.

A letter from the National Jewish Hospital in Denver was read thanking the Salon for the many toys sent to the children at Christmas. A report of the Christmas party held in Port Orford was given.

The Area E District Child Welfare Conference will be held in Portland Jan. 21-23 and all members were urged to attend if possible. Many National officers will be there, including the National President of Eight & Forty, National Child Welfare Chairman and National Rehabilitation Chairman.

Salon No. 509 participated one hundred per cent in the contributions to the following projects: Department President's Project, which is a Micro-device for studying the amount of nitrogen in proteins; Cystic Fibrosis; Research; Nurses Scholarship. After the meeting games were played and the money received was sent to various organizations to be used in giving assistance to needy children and adults.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Wm. Trott of Bandon. Present from Port Orford were: Mrs. Wm. Montgomery and Mrs. Robert Meyer.

A Russian who lives happily under the present system of government in Russia must either believe that a man has no soul, or that, if he has, it is not worth developing.

St. Christopher's To Have Annual Potluck Meeting

St. Christopher's Episcopal Church will hold its annual meeting Sunday, beginning with a potluck dinner in the parish hall at 6 o'clock.

Following the meal, reports from all of the church officers and the parochial organizations will be received.

The new members of the Bishop's Committee, the local governing body, will be elected, and plans for the coming year will be discussed. All adults who are either contributing baptized members or active communicants of the congregation are urged to be present. Children are, of course, also welcome, said the Rev. L. Wayne Bond.

Three Local Students Named to SWOC Honor Roll

Two Bandon boys and a Langlois girl were among 53 students at Southwestern Oregon College to be named to the combined Honor Roll and Dean's Honor Roll for the fall term.

Bonnie J. Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jensen of Langlois, was one of two students to make straight 'A's' for a 4.0 average.

Students who carry 12 term hours or more in liberal arts and 15 or more in clock hours of technical-vocational subjects without a failing grade and whose GPA for the term is 3.50 or above qualify for honor roll. Named to the honor roll from Bandon was Louis W. Lindquist. In addition to the honor roll, 38 SWOC students qualified for the Dean's Honor Roll. To qualify for this distinction, students must have a GPA of 3.00 or above, but below a 3.50, without any failing grades.

Among those qualifying for the dean's roll were Thomas B. Coss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Goss of Bandon.
