

Johnson-Woodworth Vows Repeated

The First Community Church in Port Orford was the scene of a lovely late summer wedding as Judith Elaine Johnson became the bride of Robert Clare Woodworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Woodworth of Port Orford on Oct. 9 at 2 o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ben Johnson of Port Orford.

The Rev. Jamie France performed the double ring ceremony before an altar flanked with floral arrangements of yellow figi mums and white chrysanthemums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a floor length bridal gown of white slipper stain, made by the bride, featuring a scooped neckline and long bridal point sleeves. She wore a shoulder length veil which had previously been worn by her sister and matron of honor, Mrs. Joe Anderson. The bride's flowers were yellow rosebuds and stephanotis on a white Bible.

Mrs. Anderson, the bride's only attendant, was gowned in a light pink net dress and carried a nosegay of white chrysanthemums.

Ronald Woodworth was best man for his brother. Ushers were Gene Wilson, Glen Suckles, Joe Anderson and Douglas Johnson.

Mrs. Virgil Libby was vocal soloist and sang "The Sunshine of Your Smile" and "Because" accompanied by Mrs. Forrest Elliott at the organ who also played the traditional nuptial music.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the church social rooms immediately following the ceremony.

The bride's table was centered with a four-tiered cake, cut and served by Miss Patty Ellis and Miss Judy Myers. Miss Rosa Balzer ladled punch and Miss Kathy Lindsay poured coffee. Miss Sheryl Mechals registered the guests, Mrs. Ron Woodworth took pictures. Arrangements for the reception were in charge of the Christian Women's Fellowship class of the Community Church.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Johnson chose a blue knit suit with a blue velvet hat. Mrs. Woodworth wore a blue wool suit with a pink hat and both wore white carnation corsages.

For the wedding trip up the coast, the new Mrs. Woodworth wore a navy blue wool dress with a white collar, navy blue shoes and a white wool coat.

The new bride is a 1965 graduate of Pacific High School; her bridegroom is a 1959 graduate of Pacific, and attended Oregon State University.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Woodworth are now at home in Seaside where he is an assistant in Industrial Arts Shop at the Seaside High School and is also attending Clatsop Community College.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Ekstrom, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Birchall, Gene Wilson, Mary and Mickey Woodworth, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. O. L. McAllister, Mrs. Ben Monson, Mr. and Mrs. David Knowles of North Bend; Kathy Lindsay of Coos Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Wagner, Seaside; Mrs. Shirley Boice, Gold Beach; Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Tacoma, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Anderson of Springfield; Rosa Balzer of Medford; Patty Ellis Ashland; Sheryl Mechals of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis of Langlois, and Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Sheryel of Reedsport.

TESTS DUE

Dorcas Groups Name Officers

The semi-annual meeting of the Myrtlewood Dorcas Federation was held Thursday in the Coos Bay IWA building.

Tables for the noon potluck were beautifully decorated in fall shades of yellow, brown, and orange by the hostesses of the day, the Coos Bay society. Dorcas society members from the Seventh-day Adventist churches in Brookings, Gold Beach, Port Orford, Bandon, Coquille, Myrtle Point, Coos Bay and Florence were in attendance, and gave a report of the activities in their areas. The purpose of these societies is welfare service and acts of benevolence as performed by Dorcas in the Bible.

D. E. Caslow, Union Conference Home Missionary leader, and C. J. Ritchie, Oregon Conference Home Missionary leader, were present and spoke of the aid the societies were able to give in recent flood disasters, working with the Red Cross and local welfare agencies. They also explained more effective ways of serving those less fortunate than ourselves. The purpose in helping others might be summed up in the old phrase, "helping them to help themselves."

Officers elected for the next two years were Mrs. Walter Cram, Port Orford, president; Mrs. J. Ellingson of Bandon, vice president; Mrs. Morse Stonecipher of Coquille, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Clyde Crasty, Myrtle Point, will be assistant secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. E. A. Maloy, Mrs. Dave Coons and Mrs. Walter Cram attended from Port Orford.
