MONKEY?

Did man evolve from the monkey? On and on goes the argument. Some scientists say it is impossible. The flesh of man and monkey, as well as the genes involved, are not the same. Yet, one doctor of science has succeeded in crossing the two, although the young embryo was destroyed. So, I suppose it is possible that you may have monkey ancestors, if that is what you want to believe, but mine were Adam and Eve. Don't make a monkey out of yourself. Believe the Word of God, the Bible.
