PACIFIC HIGH

By BILL KRICK

Pacific wrestling coach John Botz took eight wrestlers to Gold Beach Dec. 28 to participate in an informal meet with Gold Beach and Brookings. The purpose of the meet was to let wrestlers get to know their opponents and find out how good they are and learn some of their moves; there was no official score recorded for single matches or team scores.
The eight who made the trip were Jim Stepp, 98 class; John Spurgeon 115, Gary Nelson 130, Jerry Forty 136, Marvin House and Bill Krick 141, Neil Nelson 148, and Mike Owens 191.

Pacific High's annual Christmas concert was presented to the student body by the band and chorus Dec. 22 in the gym. The band and chorus started practice for the concert just after they presented the Thanksgiving Concert. The band, under direction of Richard Harper, played nine numbers and the chorus, under direction of Wayne Merrill, sang 10 songs.

David Knapp won first place in a Future Farmers of America speech contest. He also won $4 from Dick's Feed Store in Langlois as prize money and will represent Pacific at the sub-district contest at Marshfield Jan. 22.

The F.F.A. will have a basketball team and will play two games with the Marshfield team, two with Myrtle Point, and one game with the Langlois men's team.

A football awards assembly was held at Pacific Jan. 6 at which time Coach John Botz handed out 23 letter awards to players who had played 12 or more quarters. Special recognition was given to this year's senior members, Scott McDonald, Neil Nelson, Marvin House, Nick Dixon, Walt Stauffer, Mike Knapp and Jim Billings.

Lettermen were Greg McDonald and Remy Boots, freshmen; Mike Owens, Tim Sullivan, Doug Robbins, Bill McDonald, Charles Storm, sophomores; Mike McWilliams, Terry Holmquist, Jack Preston, Jerry Forty, Don Smith, Rod Forty, Dave Hatmaker, Ken Trimble, Henry Potter, juniors; and the seniors already mentioned.

Members of the varsity who did not letter but came to practice every day are Don Lahrens, sophomore; Eric Lorenzen and Floyd Chase, juniors.

Members of the JV team, composed of freshmen and sophomores are Lory Tope, Bill Krick, Bob Fry, Dennis Dougherty, Marvin Allison and Terry Sweeney, sophomores; John Hatmaker, David Knapp, Wayne Moore, Gary Burton, Greg Inman, Milt Smith and Arne Johnson, freshmen. The junior varsity was introduced by Coach George Kaye. They received a certificate of award as they were introduced.

Manager for the season was freshman Pat Still who was commended by Coach Botz for the good job he had done. Botz expects to have a good season in 1966 with 16 returning lettermen.
