

Special Meetings Set In September

Evangelist Darrell Freleigh will be conducting a crusade Sept. 11 through 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the Langlois Community Church.

The Rev. Freleigh has conducted meetings in Australia, Singapore, Ceylon, India, Egypt, Syria and Old Jerusalem. His ministry has been popular in conferences at Cannon Beach, Ore., and Moody Bible Institute, Founder's Week in Chicago.

During his ministry he has held two successful pastorates and traveled around the world as an independent evangelist. He received his education at Moody Bible Institute and Drake University, doing graduate work at the University of Missouri. Pictures of his world travels will be one of the features of the meeting. As Rev. Freleigh is an outstanding songleader and soloist, music will also play an important role in the meeting.

The public is cordially invited, states the Rev. Wm. Mai, church pastor.

SON VISITS

Capt. and Mrs. H. W. Newton of Washington, D.C., have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Newton and with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Wright, Port Orford.
