

North Curry News

by Mary Kribs
phone 332-3181

• PORT ORFORD • SIXES • LANGLOIS

Knapp-King Nuptials Held Friday

Surrounded by pink and white gladioli, dahlias and snapdragons, Michael Lloyd Knapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Knapp of Port Orford, and Marilyn Gail King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. King of Crescent City, Calif., were united in marriage in the Port Orford Lutheran Church Friday at 7:30.

Seed pearls embroidered the neckline of the floor-length white gown worn by the bride at the double ring ceremony, and she carried a bouquet of white lilies. Mary Ellen Knapp, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and wore an azalea pink chiffon dress.

Richard Buss was best man, and David Louis Knapp, brother of the bridegroom, and Gregg Mayea were ushers. Candle-lighters were Carol Ann Knapp and Kimberley Dunn. The bride was given away by her father, and Pastor Rudolph Mensch performed the ceremony. Mrs. Orris Smith sang "Because" accompanied by Chas. Jensen at the organ.

Pam Mayea cut and served the cake, and Linda Mayea poured coffee at the reception in the social hall of the church. Mrs. James Goheen served the punch. Mrs. Glenn Mayea and Mrs. Jack Smith presided at the gift table and Carol Knapp and Kimberley Dunn registered the guests.

The bride's mother wore a yellow suit with white accessories, and Mrs. Knapp wore a green suit with black accessories.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Knapp are graduates of Pacific High, he in 1966 and she in 1967. He attended SWOCC in Coos Bay, and she will continue to attend Skleton Beauty Academy in that city.

For their trip to Portland, Mrs. Knapp wore an orange suit with white accessories. They returned to Port Orford Sept. 18 and are at home in the apartment next door to the Western Builders Supply on Highway 101.

Special Women's Meeting Dated

Thursday, Oct. 12, a "Day Apart" program will be presented at the Del Rogue restaurant in Wedderburn by members of the Christian Women's Club of this area. The featured speaker and leader will be Millie Stamm, national prayer chairman of the Christian Women's Club and the Christian Business and Professional Women's Clubs of America and author of "Meditation Moments." From 9:30 to 11 a.m. there will be a Prayer Brunch, 11:05 to 12:15 will be inspirational time, and luncheon and inspirational time will be between 12:20 and 3. Reservations must be in by Oct. 9 to Mrs. Robert Crumley, Box 447, Gold Beach, telephone CH 7-8681. The cost is $1.50 which will include the luncheon tip and the brunch.

VISIT SON

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kribs went to Harrisburg last week to visit the son, Tim, and family, and his wife went on to Turner to attend the Oregon Evangelism Training Institute. They returned to Port Orford Saturday.

BIRTHDAYS HONORED

A birthday dinner Saturday at the Otto Wiechmann home celebrated the birth date of the host and his son-in-law, Daryl Robison of Portland, and Daryl's twin brother, Delmer, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Robison entertained the honored guests and also Mrs. Otto Wiechmann, Mrs. Daryl Robison and Eldon Wiechmann of Lake Grove, all of whom enjoyed both family get-togethers.

FROM MORROW BAY

Mr. and Mrs. William Riley and small son, Willie, of Morrow Bay, Calif., were visiting relatives and friends in Langlois for a couple of days last week. Mrs. Riley, better known as "Sandy", is the daughter of James W. Brooks.

HAS VACATION

Doug Petok vacationed for a week with relatives in the San Francisco area before returning to his second year of school at the Tacoma Vocational Technical Institute. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Petok of Port Orford, and sister, Janis, accompanied him to Portland over the Labor Day holidays and visited with friends and relatives while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dahl of Oakland, Calif., were visiting at the Petok home last week. Dahl is Mrs. Petok's brother.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

IN PORTLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brooks of Langlois were in Portland on State Grange business the forepart of the week.

JayCettes Elect

Newly elected officers of the reorganized JayCettes are Mrs. Jim Woodward, president; Mrs. Doyle Greene, vice president; Mrs. Gary Buhler, secretary; Mrs. Ron Woodward, treasurer, and Mrs. Calvin Pemberthy Jr., publicity. The whole group met at the home of the president recently and planned their projects for the coming year, their first of which is to collect old clothing and toys which will be turned over to the Curry County nurse for distribution among the needy families. It has been requested that the items to be donated be turned in by Sept. 30 and left at the homes of any of the officers or at Susan Nicholson's store.

Mrs. Pemberthy stated that the club wishes to be of service to the community and another of their projects is especially to assist needy children. Attention is called to the fact that young couples between the ages of 21 and 35 are eligible to become members of the JayCettes and JayCettes.

TO SCHOOL

Floyd Keeler and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Worrell took Tom Keeler to Ashland last week where he enrolled as a freshman at SOC under the "Rehabilitation for the Handicapped" program. Tom had polio when he was two but has not let this keep him from graduating from Pacific High last year, and under this helpful program, which is administered by the State Board of Education, he will be able to go as far as he desires in securing a useful education.

FAMILY RETURNS

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Alexander, former residents of Port Orford, have moved back after a sojourn in Grand Ronde. He is employed at Western States Plywood Plant.

DAUGHTERS ENROLL

Mr. and Mrs. Verdo Harris of Port Orford took their daughters, Mary Lou and Judy, to Oregon State University at Corvallis Sunday where Mary Lou will be a junior and Judy, a freshman.

Film Slated

"Anything Can Happen" is the title of a new 40-minute motion picture scheduled for public showing at the Langlois Community Church Sunday at 8 p.m. Characterized by some as startling, this new black and white documentary uses on-the-spot interviews in homes, offices, public terminals, on the street and through the mail interviews for a candid probe into the attitudes and actions of Christians in today's churches.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

MEETINGS

The Christian Men's Fellowship of Curry County met at the Art Sweet home Saturday evening for a potluck dinner and an evening of fellowship and inspiration. Lyle Knutson, president of the group, read the scripture lesson. Verne Lister, Gold Beach, and Mrs. Sweet sang a duet, as did Robert Tope and Mrs. Sweet. "Let's be Christian Men" was the theme of the message given by Albert Kribs of the Port Orford Christian Church.

Booster Night Set

Sixes Grange Booster Night starts at 6:30 Saturday with a potluck dinner, followed by a program at 8. The main feature of the program will be colored slides and a talk by John Loshbaugh, Pacific High senior, who will tell of his recent European trip.

SUNDAY VISITORS

Sunday visitors at the Willbur Sypher home in Langlois were Mr. and Mrs. Huey Blakeley of Coos Bay.

SEE GAME

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith of Langlois went with the Pacific High football team to Eugene last week to play St. Francis High and report that the weather was so hot that they didn't see how the boys from the coast were able to last through the game wearing the heavy uniforms.

IN MYRTLE POINT

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Britton made a trip to Myrtle Point last week to visit their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Powrie.

PTO MEET SET

The first PTO meeting of the year will be held in the multipurpose room of the Langlois school Thursday evening, Sept. 28. The officers are urging all parents and friends to attend this meeting and get acquainted with the new teachers.

LIONS AUXILIARY

The Lions Auxiliary of Port Orford and Langlois will meet at the Burrell Babb home in Port Orford Tuesday at 8 p.m.

SEWING TAUGHT

Lessons on how to sew stretch materials, bonded fabrics and other new materials have been held the past two Mondays in Langlois in the Sportsmen's building. Mrs. Fannie Hopson of Bandon is the instructor and says there will be one more lesson in the course.

DIRECTORS TO MEET

The Langlois Lions Club directors will meet Sept. 20 at the Sportsman's building.

FROM CLACKAMAS

Mrs. Anna Thomas of Clackamas drove down to Port Orford for the weekend and brought Mrs. Marie Wentzel, mother of Mrs. Connie Colson, for a visit at the Colson home.

SUNDAY GUESTS

Sunday visitors at the Elmer Robison home in Port Orford Sunday were their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Robison from Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Monte Coleman and children from Coos Bay.

VISIT TOWNLEYS

Recent visitors at the Val Townley home in Port Orford have included Mr. and Mrs. Sam Weinberg and three daughters of Santa Monica, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Greeting from West Milton, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morrison of Ontario, Calif., as well as Johnny O'Hara, a former resident who now has the Karmel Korn shop in Pony Village. The Townleys took their out-of-state visitors through the Western States Plywood plant, and let them gather blueberries and blackberries.

PTA TO MEET

The first Parent-Teacher Association meeting will be on Sept. 28 in the multi-purpose room of the Port Orford Elementary School.

MEET SLATED

Oct. 3 from 2:45 to 3:30 p.m. all parents of first graders in Port Orford are invited to attend meetings in the individual first grade rooms at the elementary school. The purpose is orientation of parents to the first grade curriculum.

AT FESTIVAL

Mr. and Mrs. Orris Smith of Port Orford visited Mr. and Mrs. Pete Goodbrod in Bandon Saturday and attended the Cranberry Festival. They report that the entire program was really good and that it was the best beef barbecue they had ever attended.

GAME DUE

The first game of the elementary school team will be with Langlois either Sept. 30 or Oct. 7 depending on the time when the coaches feel the boys are ready to play.

EXTENSION MEETING

The Port Orford Home Extension Unit met Friday at the home of Mrs. LaVerne Tope and the program for the coming year was planned. Mrs. Norma Ellis presented the program on cake decorating. Attending were Mrs. Joe Blanchard, Mrs. Lynn

WOMEN AT WSP

Four women began general plywood work at Western States Sunday night, three more on Monday night and one more Tuesday, making a total of eight who are now employed on the "grave yard" shift.

BRIDGE BOUTS

Seven tables of master point bridge were in play Wednesday evening and winners for the north-south were Ed Conley and Fred Horowitz, first; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dougherty, second; Grace McKenzie and Catherine Marsh, third; east-west, Jack Langworthy and Ed Rust, first; Ray Hopp and E. B. Lemanski, second, and Ed Bigelow and A. Windma'ser, third.

VISIT HAGUES

Another trek from Washougal, Wash., to Port Orford was recently made by Mr. and Mrs. Ted Girard who come three or four times a year to visit the F. L. Hague because they like the coast so much. Other guests were their grandson, Tom Short, and his family from Cheney, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schnell from Boise. Mrs. Hague and Mrs. Schnell were girlhood chums and had not seen each other for 12 years.

TO SCHOOL

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Preston of Port Orford went this week to Klamath Falls to take their son, Jack, to OTT where he will be a freshman.

MOVES GARAGE

John Lowery of Sixes, former operator of John's Garage in the north part of Port Orford, and his brother-in-law have moved into their own garage just north of Pacific High on Highway 101, having closed the garage in Port Orford.

IN WINSTON

Mrs. Lester Smith of Port Orford spent the weekend at the K. C. Smith home in Winston. The Lester Smiths sold their home on Cape Blanco Road to Rod McKenzie.

TO COLLEGE

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mayea of Port Orford went to Eugene to take their daughter, Pam, to enter the University of Oregon as a freshman.

PURCHASE HOME

Mr. and Mrs. John Hatcher have purchased and moved into the home where the Floyd Griffee family formerly lived on Coast Guard Hill Road.

VISIT MRS. CORRICK

Overnight guests of Mrs. Mary Corrick of Langlois on Monday were Mrs. Alvin Remnick and Mrs. Fred Lahti of Battle Ground, Wash.

IN SEATTLE

David Hatmaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hatmaker of Langlois, went to Seattle Monday to take a job with the Boeing Aircraft Co.

Christian Church

"God's Wonderful Plan for our Lives" is the sermon topic at the Port Orford Christian Church Sunday morning at 11. Bible School is at 9:45 and the evening service at 7 when Al Kribs' sermon topic will be "Where True Happiness is Found." Bible study and choir practice will be at the Art Sweet home Wednesday at 7.

AT FESTIVAL

Mr. and Mrs. Orris Smith of Port Orford visited Mr. and Mrs. Pete Goodbrod in Bandon Saturday and attended the Cranberry Festival. They report that the entire program was really good and that it was the best beef barbecue they had ever attended.

GAME DUE

The first game of the elementary school team will be with Langlois either Sept. 30 or Oct. 7 depending on the time when the coaches feel the boys are ready to play.

PTA TO MEET

The first Parent-Teacher Association meeting will be on Sept. 28 in the multi-purpose room of the Port Orford Elementary School.

MEET SLATED

Oct. 3 from 2:45 to 3:30 p.m. all parents of first graders in Port Orford are invited to attend meetings in the individual first grade rooms at the elementary school. The purpose is orientation of parents to the first grade curriculum.

AT FESTIVAL

Mr. and Mrs. Orris Smith of Port Orford visited Mr. and Mrs. Pete Goodbrod in Bandon Saturday and attended the Cranberry Festival. They report that the entire program was really good and that it was the best beef barbecue they had ever attended.

GAME DUE

The first game of the elementary school team will be with Langlois either Sept. 30 or Oct. 7 depending on the time when the coaches feel the boys are ready to play.

EXTENSION MEETING

The Port Orford Home Extension Unit met Friday at the home of Mrs. LaVerne Tope and the program for the coming year was planned. Mrs. Norma Ellis presented the program on cake decorating. Attending were Mrs. Joe Blanchard, Mrs. Lynn

WOMEN AT WSP

Four women began general plywood work at Western States Sunday night, three more on Monday night and one more Tuesday, making a total of eight who are now employed on the "grave yard" shift.

BRIDGE BOUTS

Seven tables of master point bridge were in play Wednesday evening and winners for the north-south were Ed Conley and Fred Horowitz, first; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dougherty, second; Grace McKenzie and Catherine Marsh, third; east-west, Jack Langworthy and Ed Rust, first; Ray Hopp and E. B. Lemanski, second, and Ed Bigelow and A. Windma'ser, third.

TALK GIVEN

The Curry County TB Association presented a representative who talked on the effects of smoking at the Battle Rock School Tuesday. The entire program was slanted toward showing the bad effects of the use of tobacco in any form.

FIRST MEET HELD

The CWF of the Port Orford Community Church held their first meeting Wednesday evening in the church social room. Mrs. Verdo Harris led the devotions. A "Cast Off" sale was planned for Oct. 24 and 25. Officers are Mrs. C.H. Dunn, president; Mrs. Ariel MacDonald, vice president, and Mrs. Conrad Johnson, secretary-treasurer.

STUDENT ELECT

The newly-elected Battle Rock Student Council officers are Keith Peterson, president; Wayne McCune, vice president; Karon Peterson, secretary-treasurer and Ron Branham, sergeant-at-arms. The cheer leaders for the eighth grade are Rebecca Still and Terry Knight, and for the seventh grade, Patti McKenzie and Jolene Preston.

Today and tomorrow (Thursday and Friday), Battle Rock will have "Hello Day" to welcome the sixth grade students to Upper Elementary. The faculty and students will have name tags to facilitate identification.

FROM COOS BAY

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kalina several days this week is Mrs. F. W. Linklater of Coos Bay. She was a guest at Monday night Bridge at the home of Mrs. Chas. Haines.

BRIDGE BOUTS

Seven tables of master point bridge were in play Wednesday evening and winners for the north-south were Ed Conley and Fred Horowitz, first; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dougherty, second; Grace McKenzie and Catherine Marsh, third; east-west, Jack Langworthy and Ed Rust, first; Ray Hopp and E. B. Lemanski, second, and Ed Bigelow and A. Windma'ser, third.

WOMEN AT WSP

Four women began general plywood work at Western States Sunday night, three more on Monday night and one more Tuesday, making a total of eight who are now employed on the "grave yard" shift.

EXTENSION MEETING

The Port Orford Home Extension Unit met Friday at the home of Mrs. LaVerne Tope and the program for the coming year was planned. Mrs. Norma Ellis presented the program on cake decorating. Attending were Mrs. Joe Blanchard, Mrs. Lynn

WOMEN AT WSP

Four women began general plywood work at Western States Sunday night, three more on Monday night and one more Tuesday, making a total of eight who are now employed on the "grave yard" shift.

EXTENSION MEETING

The Port Orford Home Extension Unit met Friday at the home of Mrs. LaVerne Tope and the program for the coming year was planned. Mrs. Norma Ellis presented the program on cake decorating. Attending were Mrs. Joe Blanchard, Mrs. Lynn

WOMEN AT WSP

Four women began general plywood work at Western States Sunday night, three more on Monday night and one more Tuesday, making a total of eight who are now employed on the "grave yard" shift.

EXTENSION MEETING

The Port Orford Home Extension Unit met Friday at the home of Mrs. LaVerne Tope and the program for the coming year was planned. Mrs. Norma Ellis presented the program on cake decorating. Attending were Mrs. Joe Blanchard, Mrs. Lynn

WOMEN AT WSP

Four women began general plywood work at Western States Sunday night, three more on Monday night and one more Tuesday, making a total of eight who are now employed on the "grave yard" shift.

EXTENSION MEETING

The Port Orford Home Extension Unit met Friday at the home of Mrs. LaVerne Tope and the program for the coming year was planned. Mrs. Norma Ellis presented the program on cake decorating. Attending were Mrs. Joe Blanchard, Mrs. Lynn

WOMEN AT WSP

Four women began general plywood work at Western States Sunday night, three more on Monday night and one more Tuesday, making a total of eight who are now employed on the "grave yard" shift.

EXTENSION MEETING