

Nuptial Mass In Springfield
Weds Neal Conser, Mary Geer

Miss Mary Lee Geer and Mr. Neal Conser were joined in marriage in a nuptial mass Sat., Dec. 2, at St. Alice Catholic Church, Springfield. The mass was celebrated by the Rev. James Crumican, associate pastor of St. Alice. The Rev. William Mai, Langlois Community Church, the bride's minister, was present in the church sanctuary and gave his blessing to the young couple at the close of the mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Geer of Langlois are the parents of the bride. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Conser of Junction City.

Mr. Geer gave his daughter in marriage at the 5 p. m. service. She was attired in a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta. The overskirt was of chiffon over taffeta and the bodice featured long lily point sleeves. The elbow length veil of illusion fell from a white satin rose-shaped headpiece trimmed with seed pearls. The bride's bouquet was of yellow rosebuds.

Honor attendant for her sister was Donna Cheslet. She wore a sleeveless round neckline dress of yellow brocade satin with high waist and bow in back. The skirt was floor-length and she wore long white gloves and carried a bouquet of white carnations and yellow roses.

Bridesmaids, dressed like the honor attendant, were Sharon Manicke and Sharon Strain. Miss Joyce Geer, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

Arnold "Skip" Tracer was best man and groomsmen were Donald Tracer and Paul Griffith.

Douglas Conser was junior groomsman. Ushers were Dale Sargent and Ronald Schneider.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Geer wore a lime green dress with matching coat and hat and brown accessories. The groom's mother was attired in a dark blue shift dress, trimmed with white, and white accessories. Both Mrs. Geer and Mrs. Conser wore corsages of white carnations.

Frances Smith of Port Orford sang and was accompanied in the songs and at the organ by Ruby Hatmaker of Langlois.

At the reception in the parish hall, Mrs. Gary Nelson, sister of the groom, presented the guest book. Serving were Linda Brady and Collen Couch, Carolyn Couch, Marian Dent, Mrs. Arleigh Tracer and Sandy Nicholls. Caring for the gifts were Pauline Lindsay and Jeanie Lindsey.

Decorations at the church and the parish hall were bouquets of gladiolus and yellow roses and white carnations.

For a honeymoon trip to San Francisco and Lake Tahoe the new matron wore a brown and orange checked suit, orange shell and brown accessories.

The couple will be at home after Dec. 10, in Springfield, where both are employed by Citizens Bank.

The bride is a graduate of Langlois high school. The groom was graduated from Junction City high school and attended University of Portland and Lane Community College.

Special guests at the wedding included four grandparents of the couple; Mrs. John Mikulecky, Coos Bay, maternal grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Orley Rich, Etna, Calif., paternal grandmother of the bride; Frank Burke, Junction City, maternal grandfather of the groom and Rocky O. Conser, Albany, paternal grandfather of the groom.

directed the pantomime. Mrs. Robert Meyer had charge of the costuming, assisted by Sandra Calhoun. Mrs. Meyer also had charge of recitations that were a part of the program along with the junior choir and girls' trio, directed by Ken Nelson. Robert Meyer had charge of the lighting for the program.
