Jobs To Install

Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 50, are inviting interested persons to their 30th public installation of officers and choir Thursday, Dec. 28, at 8 p.m. in the Port Orford Masonic Temple. Irene Fisher is honored queen-elect and June Est is the retiring Honored Queen.

CLUB HOLDS PARTY

Mrs. Del Newkirk entertained the Silver Springs Sewing Club at her home last Tuesday for their annual Christmas party. This club was organized about 12 years ago by Mrs. Wes Zumwalt. The meeting this month was an all-day party.

Present were Mrs. Cecil Colson, Mrs. Harry Gebauer, Mrs. Chas. Morgan, Mrs. Eulah Elliott, Mrs. Forrest Elliott, Mrs. Bud Pomeroy, Mrs. Gerald Lynch, Mrs. Dow Clarence, Mrs. R. L. Sharp and the hostess.

Pomona Grange Installs Officers

Curry Pomona Grange met at the Chetco Grange Hall in Brookings Dec. 16 where officers and committee chairmen for the past year made their reports.

Earle Parker, who has just retired after being Coos Pomona Master for six years, and Mrs. Parker were among the guests.

Ed Seelye of Port Orford became a member of Curry Pomona and Randy Coe of Brookings conducted an auction of Christmas gifts in order to raise money to finish paying for the typewriter which was recently purchased for the Grange Youth Camp. He had been given lovely dolls, earrings set, a toy piano, and other donations for the auction.

"Bounty by the Sea" and "Curry Wonderland" were the names suggested for the County Fair in 1968 and "Bounty by the Sea" was chosen by popular vote.

It was announced that Pomona would sponsor another "Fun Night" on Feb. 17 at the Ophir Grange Hall, with potluck at 6:30 and the theme to be Valentine's Day.

Election of Officers for Curry Pomona included Master, Wm. Webster, overseer, Clarence Davies; lecturer, Docia Sweet; steward, Joe Zumpfe; assistant

Eastern Star Holds District Meeting

The district meeting for Port Orford, Gold Beach and Brookings Eastern Star chapters was held last Thursday evening in Gold Beach with a large number in attendance.

Worthy Grand Matron Laurie Woodard of Forest Grove was the guest of honor, and others attending with her were Mrs. Gordon Baker, worthy grand Martha and wife of the worthy grand patron, and Helen Stanovich, representative of Iowa in Oregon.

Port Orford conducted the initiation. Brookings had won the traveling gavel with 22 present; 20 were from Port Orford, 13 members plus the officers taking part in the work from Gold Beach and seven visitors from other chapters.

NAVY SON VISITS
Petty Officer, 3rd class, boiler technician Greg Dahrens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Dahrens of Elk River, was home for three days recently after spending eight months in Vietnam. He is on the destroyer USS Aggerholm and his home port is now Long Beach, Calif. He tells of one very tiresome mission when the destroyer was asked to check on a Russian fishing boat for three days, but mostly they are on guard duty for the big aircraft carriers.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS
Edie Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Clarke of Port Orford, is home from Southern Oregon College at Ashland, for the Christmas holidays.

ROOF BLOWS OFF
The Elmer Bens home on Hubbard Creek that survived a fire some months ago by such a narrow margin, gave the family another shock Sunday about 1 o'clock when the roof blew off the front of it at the height of the storm which hit the area. Mrs. Bens was there when it happened and says that it "really gave her a scare."

SENIOR CITIZENS
The Senior Citizens Club of Port Orford held their Christmas program Monday evening which started with a potluck supper. A program was presented which included a reading by Audrey Gebauer, "The Night Before Christmas," by Ollie Britton and a skit by Echol Nutt and Lela Hubbs.

Santa, in the person of Wesley Zumwalt, helped with the gift exchange and then George Guerin showed a group of his slides.

EASTERN STAR MEETS
Port Orford Eastern Star met in regular session at the Masonic Hall Dec. 16 where it was reported that Letha Bush and Beth Magnuson had returned to the hospital for treatment and observation and that Sylvia Honeywell had undergone major surgery.

The group voted to send $5 to the Eastern Star home for the Aged at Forest Grove to be used as "pin money" by the guests.

Pro tem officers for the meeting were Tronie Morris, Viola Spencer, Mildred Russell and George Pruitt.

The program included a vocal solo by Frances Smith and the words of a Christmas carol read by Worthy Matron Gertrude Adolphson. This particular carol is chanted to the sound of drums by the Lomatribesmen in Liberia, Africa, and is very different.

Pomegranates are commercially grown in Arizona and California.

YULE PARTY HELD

Sunday evening at 6 o'clock the Eastern Star and Masons of Port Orford had a potluck supper and Christmas party for about 45 members and guests, including some children. There was a Christmas tree and gift exchange and when Santa appeared, one little boy said, "That's a woman, I can tell by her heels." Santa did seem to have laryngitis and Hoyt Littrell proved to be a very capable "helper."

MASTER POINT NIGHT

From a buffet table tastefully decorated for Christmas, joyed by those playing Bridge at the Port Orford Legion Hall Wednesday evening. Winners at the Monthly Master Point night from north-south were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Horowitz, first; Geneva Tucker and Grace McKenzie, second; and Nadine Kalina and Bob Dutton, third. East-west winners were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dougherty, first; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Halbersteb, second, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wagner, third.

VACATION STARTS
Christmas vacation will begin this afternoon (Thursday) at 3:30 p.m. for the schools in district 2CJ.

IN HOSPITAL
Mrs. Milton Leer returned to McAuley Hospital in Coos Bay Monday for further observation and treatment. She hopes to be home in about a week.

HAS CHECK-UP
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas of Port Orford went to Eugene last week, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Zumwalt. Zumwalt went to the doctor for his regular check-up.

VISIT PARENTS
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Balzer of Port Orford went to Dallas last Tuesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erp Bennett. Bennett had undergone major surgery about two months ago and had been improving, but Mrs. Balzer was called back because his condition had taken a turn for the worse.

MEET CANCELLED
The Sunset Garden Club cancelled their Dec. 8 meeting and Christmas party because of illness. The gift exchange will be held Jan. 12 during the regular meeting.

DINNER GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Owens and daughter, Laura, who have recently moved to Port Orford from San Ysidro, Calif., were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hubbs.

TO HAWAII
Susan Mechals, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Mechals of Port Orford, who is a freshman at Oregon State University, left by plane for Hawaii Monday to spend Christmas vacation with her college roommate.

SON IS HOME

Jack Preston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Preston of Port Orford, is home from OTI in Klamath Falls for the Christmas vacation.

TRANSFERRED

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Forty, former residents of Port Orford who have been living at Valselt, are moving to Newport where he has been transferred.

Langlois Yule Program Held

On Thursday evening at 7:30 the Upper Elementary grades of the Langlois school presented their Christmas program for the community. A large group attended and responded enthusiastically to the number presented by the regular chorus and other singers who had been trained by Wayne Merrell, vocal director.

The beginners, intermediate and advanced bands, under the direction of Kenneth Nelson, band director for school district 2CJ, performed their part of the program in a manner to make everyone very proud of the progress they have made. The beginners who have had their instruments only a very few months were outstanding and those who have been playing for a longer time showed marvelous talent. The schools of this area are indeed fortunate to have such fine teachers in the music departments.

The primary school program, for the first, second and third grades of the Langlois school will be given on Thursday (today). All the parents of the children in these grades and the pre-schoolers are invited to this program and to welcome Santa Claus.

On Thursday (today) afternoon the upper elementary school will be shown a film of the Bob Hope picture "Son of Pale Face." Christmas vacation for all of children begins this afternoon and will continue until Jan. 2, 1968.

Deanery Dinner Held
The Rt. Rev. James W. F. Carmen, Bishop of Oregon, and Mrs. Carmen hosted a dinner for the deanery clergy in the parish hall of St. Christopher's Episcopal Church Monday night. Those attending were Rev. and Mrs. Richard Glidden of Brookings, Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Welsh of Gold Beach, Rev. Walter Parker of Gold Beach, Rev. and Mrs. Harry Heeneey, Coos Bay, Rev. and Mrs. Douglas Thompson, Reedsport, Rev. and Mrs. Orlo Hoye, Coquille, Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Ashbee, Myrtle Point, and Rev. James Lloyd, Vicar of St. Christopher's.

The Oregon Traffic Safety Commission reminds you that over one half of all holiday traffic accidents occur because of drinking. So if you're planning to drink don't drive--be around for the New Year.

New Procedure Set For SWOCC

A new registration procedure, adopted for winter term at Southwestern Oregon Community College, will enable students to enroll for classes faster and more efficiently, according to the college information office. The first day of classes winter term is Wednesday, Jan. 5.

For the most part, all registration will take place in the course of one day, Tuesday, Jan. 2, in the first level of Prosper Hall, the new physical education building. Sophomores will begin registering at 8 a.m., returning freshmen at 10 a.m. New students and others may register anytime after 1 p.m. that day.

Registration packets are now available at the admissions office made up in advance for those students enrolled fall term. New students and those returning after an absence of two or three terms should call the college (888-3234) and leave names and addresses, and registration packets will be prepared.

Late registration fees will be charged after Jan. 2. Follow-up registration, beginning Wednesday, Jan. 3, will be held until Friday, Jan. 12. Beginning Thursday, Jan. 4, registration will be moved to Dellwood Hall.

The registration schedule is: Jan. 3, 9 a.m.-12 noon, 1 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 9 p.m. Jan. 4, 1 to 4 p.m., and 6 to 9 p.m.

Jan. 5, 1 to 4 p.m. Jan. 8 through 11, 1 to 4 p.m., and 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Seniors Invited To Visit OSU

Oregon State University's annual open house for high school seniors, their parents and friends, has been scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 20.

Most of the special orientation program will be devoted to school meetings at which students and their parents will be briefed on fields of study, course and graduation requirements, and career opportunities after college.

In other sessions, information will be presented on housing accommodations and costs; admission requirements; financial aids-scholarships, part-time work opportunities and loans; student activities; and ROTC program for men.

December is the worst month of the year for Oregon traffic accidents reports the Oregon Traffic Safety Commission. When driving on winter's wet, slippery, foggy roads, slow down. Adjust your speed to meet road and weather conditions.
